Mercy flows... Love redeems

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

LENT BEGINS THIS ASH WEDNESDAY... SHHHHHHH!

Believe it or not, Lent begins this week with ASH WEDNESDAY on February 17th! Traditionally we usually ask the question, "What am I going to give up for Lent this year?" This could be something we cherish, like pizza or scotch...or both? Or maybe it could be giving up being judgmental, or being negative.

Or, perhaps we can ask ourselves, "What am I going to DO for Lent this year?" Maybe I can choose to make the special effort to attend Lenten weekday Masses at 8:00 AM, or maybe the special 7PM Wednesday evening Lenten Masses. This might be a good year to pray the traditional Stations of the Cross on the Fridays of Lent after the 8AM Mass or the Scriptural Way of the Cross in the style of Taizé sung prayer on our Lenten Friday evenings. We'll begin at 6:30 PM with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and some quiet time before the Eucharistic Presence of Christ before we begin the Taizé Stations around 7:00 PM.

Whatever we do or not do, let it be something that's going to change us for the better beyond the season of Lent, not just during it. That takes a little more time to discern. So, might I suggest during these few days before Ash Wednesday that we spend some quiet time with God? Ask God to help you with the decision, and then let it be between you and God alone. SHHHHHH.... Read on...

WHAT ARE YOU DOING OR NOT DOING FOR LENT?

Actually, I shouldn't even ask that question, because whatever anyone of us does or doesn't do for Lent is something that should be between us and God...and no one else! Let's listen to what Jesus says in the Gospel we will read at the Masses this Ash Wednesday, February 17th:

*Jesus said to his disciples: "Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them; otherwise, you will have no recompense from your heavenly Father. When you give alms, *do not blow a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets to win the praise of others. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right is doing, so that your almsgiving may be secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you.

*"When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, who love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on street corners so that others may see them. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you.

"When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites. They neglect their appearance, so that they may appear to others to be fasting. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you may not appear to be fasting, except to your Father who is hidden. And your Father who sees what is hidden will repay you." (Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18)

So, it's pretty clear from the above words of Jesus that our Lenten sacrifices be something between God and ourselves, and "your Father who sees what is hidden will repay you." (Matthew 6:18) Have a Happy Lent...between you and God alone! SHHHHHHH....

PASTORAL COUNCIL CHANGES

Many thanks to Luz Micabalo who has served for several years on our Parish Pastoral Council. Recently she submitted her resignation, which was not an easy decision for her. When we spoke, I expressed my deep gratitude to her for her active participation, not only on the Pastoral Council, but in parish life as well. Luz assured me that she will continue to keep us all in her thoughts and prayers. Thanks, Luz, for your faithful years of loving service to this great parish community!

Strengthening One Another in the Faith Diocese of Las Vegas Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2021

This year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA) is officially underway! Join us in answering the call to Missionary Discipleship as we do our part to support the efforts of the Diocese of Las Vegas in spreading the good news of the Gospel throughout our community and beyond!

This year, the goal for St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish is to raise $323,685 as our contribution towards the diocesan goal of $3.2 million.

All registered households should have received a brochure, pledge card and return envelope in the mail. If you did not receive the mailing, please take one from the gathering space or visit the church website, www.seaslv.org, to learn about the diocesan ministries and programs the CSA supports. Electronic contributions can be made through the website as well. Make sure to designate St. Elizabeth Ann Seton as your parish to ensure your contribution is credited correctly.

For additional assistance, contact Pastoral Associate for Stewardship & Communications Patty Janura at PattyJanura@seaslv.org (702-804-8326).

The present bylaws of the Pastoral Council state: "In the event of a Pastoral Council member's resignation...the Pastor will select a replacement from the previous pool of applicants at his discretion for the remainder of the current term." [Section 3.03 (vi)]

The recommendations from the previous Discernment Committee of the past applicants to the Pastoral Council made it easy to figure out who would be the one "next-in-line." After consultation with the Executive Committee of the Pastoral Council and with their affirmation, I approached Barbara Mazur to see if she would be willing to fill out the rest of Luz's term. Barbara was more than willing to accept this position. Therefore, we welcome Barbara to full and active membership on the Pastoral Council for the term ending in August of 2022. Congratulations, Barbara! We look forward to your new service to our parish family!

Peace always,

Saint of the Week

Blessed Fra Angelico

Dates: 1400 - 1445

Feast Day: February 18

Fra Giovanni da Fiesole, known as Blessed Fra Angelico, was an early Renaissance painter. After joining the Dominicans in 1420, he began illustrating manuscripts and choir books, beginning each new work with a prayer. His religious altarpieces, paintings and frescoes exploited color for spatial and emotional effect. Fra Angelico, meaning “angelic brother,” decorated an entire Florentine monastery and two Roman chapels. Notable works include his “Annunciation” and Descent from the Cross.” He declined an appointment as archbishop of Florence and was officially beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1982. Art students often leave written prayers near his tomb in the Church of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva in Rome. He is patron of artists.

Today is World Marriage Day

On this World Marriage Day, we thank our heavenly Father for the gift and blessing of marriage and the family. As we strive to live our particular vocations and respond to the Lord’s grace in our lives, let’s also consider how we might dedicate renewed prayer and attention to marriage and the family. As a start, here are possible areas we might consider:

First, we begin with prayer: Let’s remember to pray with and for marriages and families throughout our nation: for marriages in crisis, for families struggling with unemployment, for broken or wounded family relationships.

Second, let us reclaim Sunday as the Lord’s Day, a day of rest when we can focus on being together as a family. The celebration of Holy Mass together is the first essential way to honor this day. But is there something more the Lord is inviting us to when we go back home? Set aside some time to pray a decade of the rosary, enjoy the outdoors together, play Ash Wednesday ball, eat dinner together, have a game night!

And third, let us remember that the Church is the family of God and a family of families. As a family, how can we share Christ with other married couples and families? Do we have any friends and family members who are struggling in their marriage, alone during this time of isolation, or particularly afflicted by this pandemic? When was the last time we checked on our elderly neighbors? Is there someone in the parish that we haven’t seen in a while? How can we — as a family — reach out to those who are in need?

Living the Faith

A Quick Marriage Retreat

“We must not allow ourselves to be conquered by a ‘throwaway culture’. This fear of ‘forever’ is cured by entrusting oneself day by day to the Lord Jesus in a life that becomes a daily spiritual path of mutual growth, step by step.” (Pope Francis, Valentine’s Day Address to Engaged Couples, February 14, 2014)

Breaking open the theme:

Many in our culture today think that it is not possible to love another person for the entirety of one’s life. Some protest that love “dies out” and say you can move on and find another person. Pope Francis, however, says that the fear of lifelong commitment is resolved by relying on Christ. In the Our Father, we say, “Give us this day our daily bread”; for Christian couples, we must also ask, “Give us this day our daily love.” If a Christian couple entrusts their love to Christ, He will sustain and multiply it. “He has an infinite reserve!” the Pope said.

Reflection:

Juan and Louisa had been married for about fifteen years when Louisa decided that she just didn’t feel that “spark of love” any longer. She convinced herself that their marriage was doomed, and it was about time to call it quits. As she came home from work that day and went to approach her husband about her decision, she found him praying by their bedside. He prayed, “Lord, I feel as if my wife doesn’t love me anymore. I just don’t know where to go from here...please take control of our marriage and help us to love each other as we once did.” Immediately, her heart was moved as she realized that a “spark” would not save their marriage, but Christ could.

Put it into practice:

Pray: Pray a rosary together – or just a decade – and focus on how Mary relied not on her own strength but on God’s.

Reflect: How can you rely on Christ in your love for your spouse?

Do: Write your spouse a note about how your feelings for him or her have deepened over time.

Feast of Faith

The Gloria (1)

The Gloria, or Glory to God, follows the penitential rite. Both are acts of praise. In the penitential rite, we sing of the mercy of Christ. In the Gloria we praise God’s saving action in the universe.

The Gloria is a relatively late addition to the Mass. It first appeared in the Roman liturgy in the sixth century, and then it was sung only by the pope—and only on Christmas! With time, the hymn came to be sung by bishops on major feasts, and then by priests; finally, it became the song of the entire assembly. With the advent of more elaborate musical settings, the people gradually stopped singing the Gloria, until this song of the people became the exclusive domain of the priest and the choir. But the liturgical reforms have restored it to its place as primarily the song of the assembly.

The language of the Gloria echoes the New Testament canticles. It may be begun by the priest, the cantor, and the entire assembly in varied combinations. The Gloria is sometimes called the “greater doxology,” and in some ways it is like an extended, ecstatic version of the familiar doxology (“Glory be to the Father”) prayed in the Divine Office and the rosary.

Stewardship

Jesus' Way

Today's readings present a contrast between "Jesus' way" and the "old way." An example of the old way is the law given to Moses and Aaron about leprosy: the leper was unclean and cast out of the community. Jesus' way is the opposite: the leper is reached out to, touched, and finally cured.

Nor ought we think of the "old way" as restricted to the days of Moses and Aaron, or even to the "old" testament. The difference between the old way and Jesus' way arises in our own lives. We still choose, every day, to live in our old way or in Jesus' way.

Jesus dared to touch a leper, disregarding the old way. The leper then was changed forever. He felt a calling. He couldn't keep himself from proclaiming that he had been touched by Jesus (even though Jesus told him not to!). Once Jesus touches us, we are called to proclaim his way.

Stewardship and the Season of Lent:

Changing Ourselves

Saint Ignatius of Loyola offered us these words of wisdom, which seem particularly relevant as we come closer to the season of Lent: "He who goes about to reform the world must begin with himself, or he loses his labor."

Christian stewards are by nature reformers. We attempt to live our lives in a way that makes the world a better place. We open our hearts to the Gospel. We contribute to charities that we believe in. We build up our Catholic parishes so that they might shine the light of truth into our weary world. We work to alleviate poverty and injustice. We witness to Christ's healing presence in our homes and places of work. Many of us work in schools, parishes and diocesan offices where we bring a passion for reforming our world. Christian stewards who work in a secular environment endeavor to bring Christian values into the marketplace.

Lent doesn't ask us to stop any of these efforts. But, as we listen to Saint John the Baptist in the Gospel, "the voice of one who cries in the desert" proclaiming the beginning of Lent, we know that the Church in her wisdom has given us a compelling season to look inward, to seek quiet time in our own desert. Saint Ignatius, Saint John the Baptist, and the season of Lent remind us that trying to change the world will not work if we don't first of all change ourselves.

Lent points the way to what really matters: Christ. We are asked to experience Him who is the reason for our endeavors, our passion and our work in this world.

Stewardship

The Church provides some traditional guidelines: prayer, fasting, almsgiving. Saint John the Baptist provides a challenge: “Anyone who has two tunics must share with the one who has none, and anyone with something to eat must do the same” (Luke3:11). How we integrate these three guidelines into Lent’s forty days is a personal decision, but one which should take us on a journey into our own hearts, where we ask ourselves why we labor, what our work and our life really mean, to whom we and our life’s work really belong.

A Stewardship Moment

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The fate of a leper is a great tragedy at any time and place. In Jesus’ time, lepers were considered condemned, part of the plagues God sent as punishment. They were cast out of society and abandoned. Saint Mark’s Gospel reveals the unthinkable. Jesus reaches out and touches a leper. He risks catching the contagious disease and heals the man. As the Gospel story teaches, no one is abandoned by Christ. Are there those in our society or in our personal lives for whom we ascribe no hope, who we have abandoned, treated like lepers? Or as Christ’s stewards of our sisters and brothers, do we risk reaching out and touching those who may seem to us to be “unclean” or not worthy of our time or attention?

Lent

Preparing for Lent

Beginning with Ash Wednesday, on February 17, we will be using the slogan, "From the ashes of _____, we will rise." The idea is to make this hope a reality for all of us.

This past year brought with it a level of misery for so many, and in so many different ways. Some have been devastated financially. Others have been fighting depression or suicidal thoughts. Most of us now know someone, maybe a very close loved one, who has passed away due to the Covid -19 virus. It is from these and other situations that we will rise.

Hope remains. Always. Fill in the blank each time you see this slogan and remember that we will rise from whatever we are going through. When the celebration of Easter comes and we, united in hope, once again reaffirm our faith in Jesus, let us stand with the true conviction that through Christ all things are possible. We will rise.

Lent

Lenten Observances

The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been extended through Easter Sunday, of the Resurrection of the Lord, April 4, 2021.

Fasting

In the dioceses in the United States, Catholics aged 18 through 59 are bound to fast on both Ash Wednesday (February 17) and Good Friday (April 2). To fast means to consume one full meal a day at most, although taking of other, smaller quantities of food at the other customary mealtimes is permitted. Food and drink between meals (excepting water and medicine) is not permitted on fast days.

Abstinence from Meat

Catholics aged 14 and up are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent and Good Friday. To abstain means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork or poultry at least, although eggs and milk products are acceptable. The consumption of fish and shellfish is permitted, though the penitential character of the abstinence should be kept in mind.

CRS Rice Bowls

Join our faith community, and more than 14,000 Catholic communities across the United States, in a life-changing Lenten journey with Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl. During the 40 days of Lent, we will reflect on the challenge of global hunger and how it affects our human family. Rice Bowls will be handed out after all Masses the weekend of February 13-14.

We invite you to journey with us through this time of spiritual growth as we rededicate ourselves to the will and work of Jesus Christ. All Lenten services and events (except confessions) will require reservations and will be live-streamed at seaslv.org.

SEAS Parish 40 Days of Prayer for Life Rosary

As Catholics, we believe that every human being is created in the image of God and redeemed by Jesus Christ. Consequently, every human being is invaluable and worthy of respect as a member of the human family. Every person, from the moment of conception to their final breath, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Here at SEAS, we believe our commitment to the Catholic social mission must be rooted in and strengthened by our spiritual lives. It's only in our relationship with God that we experience the conversion of heart that is necessary to truly love one another as God has loved us and build a culture that cherishes every human life. During this Lenten season, we invite you to join us as we pray and reflect on God's great gift of human life. Every day at 3:00 p.m. during Lent (including weekends) we will gather to pray a special Rosary for Life. This special rosary experience will be prayed Monday-Friday in the church and Saturday-Sunday in the Mater Dei Chapel. Reservations are required and proper sanitizing and social distancing protocols will be in place.

No Confessions February 15 or 22

Due to the Presidents' Day holiday on February 15 and because our Parish Day of Reconciliation will be held on Tuesday, February 23, there will be no confessions on Monday, February 15 or Monday, February 22. Monday confessions will resume on March 1.

work and the communal life of God's church. After listening to this testimony, the bishop will declare that they are elected for baptism, chosen to be God's own in Christ Jesus, and they will inscribe their names in the Book of the Elect as a promise of faithfulness to the call they have received from Christ. At the Easter Vigil, these "Elect" will be baptized, confirmed and receive Eucharist. Thus they will be fully initiated into the Body of Christ.

Pray for Our Catechumens

Next Sunday, February 21, at the 10:00 a.m. Mass, the following individuals (Catechumens — the name given to those preparing for Baptism in the Catholic faith) will celebrate the Rite of Sending Forth Catechumens for Election when they will be recognized for the progress they have made in their spiritual formation as they enter their final period of preparation leading to their initiation into the Catholic Church.

After the Rite of Sending Forth, these Catechumens will celebrate the Rite of Election later in the day.

What is the Rite of Election?

The Rite of Election is the second step on the catechumens' journey toward Baptism. They, and those who have been working with them for months, believe that God has chosen them to be one of us, the baptized. The Church chooses those it deems ready for initiation and leads them into the more intense period of Lenten preparation. At the Rite of Election, their godparents, sponsors, catechists, pastors and friends will testify before the bishop, or his delegate, that God has chosen these people. They will offer the evidence of their lives among us, hearing and following God's word, praying with God's people and taking part in the

If you have already met the limit of Presider Mass Intentions that is allowed per person, please feel free to request additional intentions now that everyone has had the opportunity to schedule intentions. There are still openings available. Call the church office at 702-228-8311 and press (0) for the receptionist, Sandra. She can explain the guidelines for Presider Mass Intentions here at SEAS and confirm whether or not there is availability for your request. Because the Presider's Mass Intention is just as important as everyone else's personal Mass Intentions, we don't single out or announce the Presider's Mass Intention at Mass.
