Mercy flows... Love redeems

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

HAPPY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK!

This week we begin our annual celebration of Catholic Schools Week. As a parish family, we are privileged to have our own St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Roman Catholic School, which continues to thrive, even during these days of pandemic. Many usual events surrounding Catholic Schools Week are simply not possible during these trying times. Nonetheless, the value of a Catholic education serves our young ones at this very moment, and then reaches beyond the here and now to the years ahead when our students will take what they have received during these formative years and make a difference in days yet to be. In that sense, the value of a Catholic education is "priceless," its value cannot be measured, its influence is far-reaching.

Our children's faith, first formed in the home or what we call the "domestic church," is affirmed throughout the school day. Wednesday morning School Masses provide encounters with God's love through Word and Eucharist. Whether in the classroom or through distance learning, our children are challenged throughout the day to live their faith by the way they treat others. Living the Gospel command of Jesus to "love one another" (see John 15:12, 17) is a sign of great faith.

Pope Francis recently stated that "love is the clearest sign of faith." Our parish school is a place where that faith and resulting love is nurtured and grows.

In addition, our parish school offers excellence in academics, music, art, and sports (when not limited by a pandemic). Current technology is incorporated at all grade levels so our students are well-prepared for their future beyond our parish school.

And so, it's only proper that we take time, each year, to remember our own St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Roman Catholic School during this Catholic Schools Week. Please lift up in your prayers this week our principal, Dr. Erica Romero, our faculty, staff and volunteers who, working together, keep this ministry alive and well. They make many sacrifices so that our children will make a difference in the world. That's why it's a great privilege to have a Roman Catholic school as a vital part of our parish ministries! Let's all have a Happy Catholic Schools Week!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Feast of Faith

Gathering

When Pope Benedict XVI visited the United States in 2008, tens of thousands gathered in Yankee Stadium to celebrate the Eucharist with him. What made them different from all the other excited crowds who have assembled there through the years? When they began to sing together, to listen together, to pray together, they ceased to be a crowd and became a liturgical assembly. It was not where they were but what they did that set them apart.

The Gospels speak of many instances when Jesus prayed alone to his Father. But Jesus also put a special value on communal prayer. "Where two or three are gathered together in my name," he told his disciples, "there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). Jesus gave his own mission to his followers, sending them forth to do everything he did: to heal, to teach, to proclaim the kingdom. Jesus wants us to meet God in and through each other. So the Christian community continues to gather, Sunday after Sunday. When we get up on Sunday morning and come to Mass, we respond to Jesus' invitation, and we express our trust in his promise that whenever we come together, he comes, too.

Saint of the Week

Joseph of Leonessa

Dates: 1556 - 1612

Feast Day: February 4

Born in Leonessa, Italy, Eufrazio took the name Joseph at 18 when he became a Capuchin Franciscan. His forte was preaching and in 1587 he went as a missionary to Constantinople (Istanbul, Turkey) to minister to Christian galley slaves. After recovering from the plague, he was arrested for preaching to Muslims. He was sentenced to death but he survived being hanged from a gibbet with a hook through one hand and one foot. He was banished and returned to Leonessa. He lived austere for another 20 years, sometimes preaching as many as 10 times a day, until he died of cancer. He was beatified in 1737 and canonized in 1746.

The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fact of Faith

The “Vanilla” Season of Ordinary Time

by Fr. Larry Rice

One of the characteristics of Catholicism — indeed, of any liturgically-oriented church — is that the pattern of our worship follows a cycle of feasts and seasons. And so too, to some extent, does the secular world. Of course, those seasons don't always align. When the rest of the world is in Christmas, we're still in Advent. When we're in the Christmas season, the rest of the world has packed away the Christmas decorations and is off to the January White Sales.

Our seasons run like this: Advent, which starts right after Thanksgiving. Christmas, which begins on Christmas Eve. A brief period of Ordinary Time, followed by Lent, Triduum, the Easter Season, and then a long stretch of Ordinary Time.

What, precisely is Ordinary Time? We usually define it by what it's not. It's the season when there's no other season going on. If seasons were flavors, Ordinary Time would be vanilla. Of course, as any good cook will tell you, vanilla has its own, often underrated flavor, with its own nuances and characteristics.

To my way of thinking, Ordinary Time is the most challenging season. During Advent, there's lots to do to prepare for Christmas. During Christmas, it's simply expected that people will be full of good cheer, promoting charity and peace on Earth. Lent has its own set of internal to-dos': the prayer, fasting, almsgiving and repentance that prepare us for the Celebration of Easter. And, of course, The Triduum and Easter are the high-points of the entire year, with lots of preparation and celebration. In all these seasons, parishes have programs, prayers, and activities to guide us through them.

Ordinary Time, generally speaking, leaves us to our own routines, and our own discipline. It's the time when we have to work to integrate our spirituality with the every-day: work, school, vacation, the ebb and flow of our lives. Fortunately, we have help and assistance with that task of integration. We have something that provides the support and spiritual nourishment we need to get through the every-day. That support is called Sunday.

Sundays, especially during this vanilla season, should be part of the rhythm of life that keeps our spirituality rooted in real life. If your life feels a little out of synch, driven by external events rather than by your own priorities, maybe you should re-examine how you're keeping the Sabbath.

Fr. Larry Rice is a Paulist Father and the director of the University Catholic Center at the University of Texas-Austin.

A Stewardship Moment

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear proclaimed the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. He teaches. He heals. And all are amazed. By their baptism, Christian stewards realize they are called to do the same in their lives. They are called to be the light of Christ each day. As we bring closure to the beginning of this new year, now is a good time to ask the Lord to fill our hearts with courage and faith, so that we too may publicly minister in his name. Let us ask that we may be liberated from our insecurities and fear so that we can share the Gospel authoritatively and work to heal at least one wounded relationship in the coming months ahead.

It Is In Giving That We Receive: Christ the King Catholic Community

During the month of January, 2% of each weekly offertory collection will be given to Christ the King Catholic Community as outreach from our It Is In Giving That We Receive Parish Stewardship. This program was conceived through our parish pastoral council as a way to help parishes in our valley who are struggling financially due to the pandemic. If you would like to make a donation to Christ the King as part of your own personal stewardship, send your donation to SEAS, 1811 Pueblo Vista Dr., LV, NV 89128. Make sure to clearly indicate that your donation is for CHRIST THE KING CHURCH. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of the month.

False Prophets, True Prophets

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God.

Televised Mass for the Sick and Homebound

Televised Masses for the sick and homebound will be celebrated and taped on Thursday, February 4, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Masses celebrated will be for the 5 Sundays of Lent. Reservations are required to attend and can be made at www.seaslv.org or 702-228-8311. Through your participation at these Masses, the homebound are reminded that they are loved by their brothers and sisters in Christ throughout the Diocese of Las Vegas, and that they remain a vibrant and loved part of our faith community. Please join us. The Sunday Mass on television is an outreach of the Diocese of Las Vegas that serves those who, for reasons outside of their control, are unable to attend Sunday Mass. These Masses can be viewed online at www.seaslv.org and on the CW Network every Sunday morning. Check your local listings.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

Because the Presider's Mass Intention is just as important as everyone else's personal Mass Intentions, we don't single out or announce the Presider's Mass Intention at Mass. The Presider's Mass Intention is listed in the bulletin as a simple courtesy.

Strengthening One Another in the Faith
Diocese of Las Vegas Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2021

This year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA) is officially underway! Join us in answering the call to Missionary Discipleship as we do our part to support the efforts of the Diocese of Las Vegas in spreading the good news of the Gospel throughout our community and beyond!

This year, the goal for St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish is to raise $323,685 as our contribution towards the diocesan goal of $3.2 million.

All registered households should have received a brochure, pledge card and return envelope in the mail this past week. If you did not receive the mailing, please take one from the gathering space or visit the church website, www.seaslv.org, to learn about the diocesan ministries and programs the CSA supports. Electronic contributions can be made through the website as well. Make sure to designate St. Elizabeth Ann Seton as your parish.

For additional assistance, contact Pastoral Associate for Stewardship & Communications Patty Janura at PattyJanura@seaslv.org (702-804-8326).

A final reporting of our parish contribution to the 2020 CSA will be published in February.

from anywhere you have internet access.

Simply follow these easy steps:

- 1) Visit the church website at www.seaslv.org
- 2) Click on the big Give Now button
- 3) Click on the Create Profile button, then
- 4) Follow the onscreen instructions to create an online profile and to schedule your one-time or recurring contributions.

QR (Quick Response) Code

Easily scan our QR Code or visit <https://is.gd/seaslv> to give now. What's a QR Code? A "QR" or "Quick Response"

Give By Text is another quick and easy way to make a contribution with your smart phone. Text the amount you would like to give to 702-978-7462. Example: $25. Make sure to include the dollar sign before the amount and within seconds you'll receive a text back with a link to complete the transaction.

Keep in Touch!

Please supply the church office with an email address if you have one so we can keep you informed of the latest parish and diocesan news. You can contact the parish office at seaschurch@seaslv.org or at 702-228-8311. Preparing for Lent

Preparing for Lent

It has been said that we as Christians are a “people of the resurrection.” In fact, each season of the Church calendar does in fact point towards Easter and the hope of Christ’s rising from the grave and freeing us all from the bondage of sin and death. This is perhaps truest of all for the season of Lent where we focus so much on the passion and death of Christ. When all seemed lost for the disciples and the followers of Jesus, hope existed even if they couldn’t see it. Possibly, this year, more than any other in our lifetime, we need to truly remember that hope.

Beginning with Ash Wednesday, on February 17, we will be using the slogan, “From the ashes of _____, we will rise.” The idea is to make this hope a reality for all of us.

This past year brought with it a level of misery for so many, and in so many different ways. Some have been devastated financially. Others have been fighting depression or suicidal thoughts. Most of us now know someone, maybe a very close loved one, who has passed away due to the Covid-19 virus. It is from these and other situations that we will rise.

Hope remains. Always. Fill in the blank each time you see this slogan and remember that we will rise from whatever we are going through. When the celebration of Easter comes and we, united in hope, once again reaffirm our faith in Jesus, let us stand with the true conviction that through Christ all things are possible. We will rise.

Ash Wednesday February 17

Ash Wednesday Mass will be celebrated on February 17 at 6am, 8am, 10am, Noon, 4pm, 6pm and 8pm. Reservations will be required and can be made at www.seaslv.org or by calling the office at 702-228-8311 no earlier than 9:00 a.m. on Monday, February 7.
