Mercy flows... Love redeems

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

THANK YOU FR. GENE!

Though it was the shortest assignment in his 37 years of priesthood, these past eight months that Fr. Gene Kinney has been with us have enriched us all. His joy and unique way of seeing things have shown us all that God is a God of surprises, a God of joy, and a God who journeys with us through all the moments of our lives.

For me, personally, Fr. Gene has been a great support in many ways. I will definitely miss his help and his friendship. His 37 years of priesthood, 15 more than my own, have helped me through the pandemic and some very delicate situations. He brought joy through the office hallways and was ready to help in whatever way he could. From Masses to Confessions to Anointings to Baptisms to Funerals and pastoral counseling, Fr. Gene has freely shared his priesthood.

And now the Holy Spirit continues to guide Fr. Gene in his new assignment as the Parochial Vicar at St. Joseph, Husband of Mary. No doubt, they will be the recipients of the Lord working through Fr. Gene's ministry.

Fr. Gene, thank you for your open and willing heart that has brought you to us. It is your same willingness that now allows you to answer the call to a new situation. May God reward your generous heart as you continue to spread his unconditional love in the ways only you can do. Blessings in all you do!

ABOUT THE END OF THE DISPENSATION TO ATTEND SUNDAY MASS

In response to many inquiries about the end of Bishop Thomas' dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass (effective after this weekend), our Judicial Vicar, the Very Rev. Robert M Herbst, OFM Conv., JCD, has prepared the following explanation for us all:

"Reflecting the Third Commandment, given to Moses by God, telling us to keep holy the Sabbath, the Catholic Church has considered Sunday to be the Sabbath day from time immemorial. It is presumed that the Apostles established this because Jesus rose from the dead on a Sunday. Similarly, the Church has always equated "keeping the Sabbath holy" with "Mass attendance," since it holds that the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life (Canon 897, which is based on Lumen Gentium 11). In short, there is no better way for a Catholic to worship God than to devoutly attend Mass.

"Sunday Mass attendance is not optional; therefore, the recent General Dispensation given by Bishop Thomas was always meant to be temporary – not permanent. The notion of such a "permanent dispensation" from this important requirement of our faith is legally unthinkable, because it is theologically and spiritually unthinkable.

"Of course, there are many entirely legitimate reasons why a Catholic couldn't get to Mass on a Sunday, and this reality is addressed in canon 1248, §2, which states that if it is impossible to assist at the Eucharist, either because no priest is available or for some other grave reason, a Catholic should do something else that is liturgical/prayerful instead, as a substitute.

"In general, the "grave reason" means simply that... For example, if someone is seriously infirm and is unable to get out of his or her house, this would constitute a grave reason to miss Mass. No Catholic is expected to risk his or her life in order to fulfill the Sunday obligation. These sorts of emergencies are normally temporary and so once they cease, the person simply resumes Sunday Mass attendance again. However, sometimes this "temporary" situation may be prolonged for more than just one or two Sundays – the most common scenario is perhaps that of the elderly or otherwise infirm person who is homebound. The Church never requires anyone by law to do something that is humanly impossible.

"In these cases, such as those who may still be homebound because of COVID-related issues, there is no need to request an "official" dispensation from the Bishop or Pastor – the Code of Canon Law already gives one the dispensation by the law itself. This application is made by the individual in good conscience – being able to say that it is not possible to attend Mass.

Jesus' Example of Helping Others

In today's second reading Paul offers a wonderful argument to his converts at Corinth for seeking to help those in need. He is dealing with a practical problem, arranging a collection for the poor of the church of Jerusalem; but as he often does, he develops an important teaching about Jesus to make his point.

After asking that they show their faith by generous gifts, he reminds them of the "gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9). In the Incarnation our Lord assumed our human nature, certainly becoming poor for one who is God. The ultimate gracious act of this poverty was going to the cross with all its terrible sufferings. By this act of poverty we definitely become rich. Now our sins can be forgiven; we can share in the very life of God through the sacraments; we can attain eternal salvation!

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Let me interject with a personal example – I had a relative who on one Sunday who went grocery shopping, then went shopping in a large retail store, and then stopped for a light lunch – and then told me that she couldn’t go to Mass that same day because she was afraid of “getting sick” from the people there. Was her excuse in ‘good conscience’? Probably not – it was just an excuse for not attending Mass since she was able to be with many other people in similar confines. It was easily possible for her to attend Mass, there was no impossibility in her situation. We must be honest with ourselves and with God if we wish to apply this dispensation to ourselves.

“If one does feel that it is impossible to attend Mass, the Code of Canon Law asks the following: (Canon 1248, §2) ... “[those persons] devote themselves to prayer for a suitable time alone, as a family, or, as the occasion permits, in groups of families.” As has been mentioned many times in the last year, the pious viewing or listening to a televised Mass while making a Spiritual Communion is a good option but can never replace the in-person celebration of the Eucharist if it is possible.

“In summation, while Bishop Thomas is not renewing the General Dispensation from the obligation for attending Sunday Mass at the end of June, Canon Law itself dispenses those for whom it is impossible to attend Mass, asking that they devote themselves to a suitable time in prayer instead of Mass attendance.”

Therefore, as of June 28, the simple obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days is back in place. As I preach many times, I hope we do not come to Mass because it is an obligation, but because of our sincere desire to thank God for the many blessings we receive every day. And what a blessing it is when we WANT to be together as a family of faith gathered in God’s love. And what a privilege it is for each of us to be CALLED BY GOD to come to Mass and be nourished by God’s own life in Word and Eucharist.

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I want to thank everyone for your great welcome and the hospitality that you have shown to me since I came to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish. The past year, we have been living in strange and sometimes difficult times due to the pandemic. When I arrived here on November 1, there were still a great deal of restrictions in place and protocols we had to follow. Now as I leave almost all but a few restrictions have been lifted. It is so great to see SEAS going back to normal. I certainly wish the parish all the best as you venture back to pre-pandemic life.

When Fr. Jim told me what my responsibilities would be here, he said that it would involve a lot of sick calls; and he was right. Most of my ministry here outside of saying Mass has revolved around anointing the sick and those very close to death. Although I was surprised at the number of calls, it has really been a good experience because it has taken me away from desk work to real pastoral ministry. Often times when I was a pastor I had to spend a lot of time at my desk and had to handle a lot of paper work. As a parochial vicar I have been freed from those responsibilities and I am able to spend most of my time ministering to the sick and the dying. I felt more that I was doing real pastoral ministry. I know that moving to St. Joseph I will also continue to be responsible for sick calls.

I am glad that so many of you enjoyed my homilies. I am grateful for the feedback I received, and I am happy that I touched many of you with my homilies. I am grateful for the wonderful staff that SEAS is blessed to have. The people who work here are wonderful and they really have a sense of mission. They are trying to advance that Kingdom of God here at SEAS. Special thanks to Marcie who has been a wonderful help to me and a friend as well.

Finally, I wish to thank Fr. Jim for his friendship and support. We both became priests of the Diocese of Las Vegas on the same day 8 years ago. I am glad that we got the chance to work together if only for a brief time.

I ask for your prayers for me and my family, especially my dad, as he is now permanently in a memory care facility. I will remember my short time here with fondness and keep all of you in my prayers.

God Bless!

Fr. Gene

Saint of the Week

The First Martyrs of Rome

Dates: 64-68

Feast Day: June 30

After a raging fire destroyed two-thirds of Rome in 64, Emperor Nero blamed Rome's Christians to divert suspicion from himself. Those acknowledging their Christianity were arrested and executed. Some were covered in wax and set afire as torches; some were sewn into animal skins and cast into the arena with wild animals; others were crucified. Sts. Peter and Paul died in the same persecution. The feast of these earliest martyrs of the Roman church is celebrated a day after the joint feast of Peter and Paul. The Roman historian Tacitus said the protomartyrs were to be pitied "for it was felt that they were being sacrificed to one man's brutality."

Feast of Faith

Preparation of the Gifts

The altar is prepared, the gifts are received. Several brief rites follow with accompanying prayers, some prayed silently by the priest and deacon and others said aloud. We call this part of the Mass the "preparation." What kind of preparation is happening? First, the presider holds up the paten or bowl containing the hosts, and says words that Jesus must have said many times, since they derive from ancient Jewish meal prayers: "Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation!" We have brought forward our gifts, our offering to God, and now we acknowledge that they are not really ours—the gifts that we give are God's gift to us. It is "through your goodness" that we have gifts to offer. It is significant that we offer not wheat and grapes, but bread and wine; "fruit of the earth and work of human hands." Bread and wine are both God's work, and ours. These preparatory rites also prepare us for what we are about to do in the Eucharist, a mystery in which divine and human meet; a holy collaboration in which our action is caught up into God's divine plan.

Stewardship

All Glory and Honor to God! A Stewardship Letter to a Parish Family

Shared for your reading pleasure, the following is an excerpt from a letter by Mary Ann Otto, Minister for

Missionary Discipleship, St. Mary Parish in Appleton, Wisconsin

PHEW!!! We made it! We made it through the sleepy world of winter to the spring alive with color and the promise of the sun on our faces. We made it through the worst of the isolation to the hope of gathering with loved ones found in the gift of the vaccination. We made it through being a virtual church family to masking up and slowly returning to look into each other's eyes in joy and understanding of the mutual experience of the past year. God's grace is everywhere!

Our parish family has made it as well! It began with the parish team on a Sunday evening from their respective homes learning how to use Zoom. That story could be a comedy routine but it eventually lead to the possibility to hold all parish committee meetings and even virtual groups. We made it as we struggled through the technology for livestreaming our Masses and the patience we learned relying on that elusive thing called the internet. We made it as we walked with our families in the midst of a full-blown pandemic. God's blessings were upon us!

Through the generosity of our parish family, we were able to keep our Ministry Team employed not only to "hold down the fort" but also to stay connected with our most vulnerable. We were able to continue to plan for our post-COVID time by moving forward with our new Mission and Vision and planning for our Parish Synod. Though our weekly giving is down due to decline in Mass attendance, we truly hope our parish family will return to the generous giving of the past, God has allowed us to keep moving forward and we are grateful!

The pandemic has taught us a vital lesson about the importance of communication technology, especially in the area of worship. Perhaps you and your family found comfort in the opportunity to celebrate Mass and our important seasons like Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter with our pastor in a familiar setting. Maybe seeing the faces of friends as well as sharing your life and Jesus in a virtual group made the isolation a little more tolerable.

We believe the Holy Spirit works through the technology of every generation to bring the love and message of Jesus to our parish family and all those we encounter. In the end as a community of disciples, sharing Jesus is what matters most. It is our call and our privilege.

Yes, we made it! Let's continue to express our gratitude! ALL GLORY AND HONOR TO GOD

A Stewardship Moment

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's second reading, St. Paul teaches the community at Corinth about a spirituality of giving. He urges them to give and helps them understand that through their generosity, they will in turn be recipients of a spiritual abundance. They will receive from those who are the beneficiaries of their own giving a reciprocal gift that amounts to an equality of giving that deepens their relationship with Christ Jesus. A good reflection this week would be to think of the ways your own life has been enriched by your generosity. How might you have reaped a spiritual abundance through your own generous behavior?

"It Is In Giving That We Receive"
Month of June
Recipient:
Holy Family Church

Holy Family Roman Catholic Church will be the recipient of our parish stewardship program for the month of June. The program, "It Is In Giving That We Receive," was conceived through our parish pastoral council as a way to help parishes in the Diocese of Las Vegas who have suffered substantial financial hardship due to the pandemic. Each month the recipient is gifted 2% of our weekly offertory collections for that month.

If you would like to make a donation to Holy Family Catholic Church as part of your own personal stewardship, send your donation to SEAS, 1811 Pueblo Vista Dr., LV, NV 89128. Make sure to clearly indicate that your donation is for HOLY FAMILY CHURCH. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of the month.

You are Invited to the Las Vegas Diocesan Conference: Rise! September 17 & 18, 2021

Register for this Personal Development Session given by Anne Kertz Kernion on Sat, Sept. 18 : Neuroscience and Well-Being: How Spirituality Affects Our Health and DNA

Our spiritual habits affect our physical and emotional health in a variety of ways. We explore recent findings in neuroscience showing how faith practices such as silent prayer, Christian mindfulness, compassionate service, and community/worship activity can slow aging in our cells, keep our brains healthy and nimble, reduce stress and bring more health, happiness and compassion into our lives. This multimedia presentation will entertain, inform and encourage you in your Christian journey.

About the Speaker

Anne Kertz Kernion is the owner/artist of Cards by Anne, an inspirational greeting card company founded in 1986 (www.cardsbyanne.com)

For 14 years, Anne taught "Cross-Cultural Understanding of Religious Meaning" at Carlow University; for seven years, she taught courses ranging from Chemistry, Environmental Science, and Nutrition, to World Religions and Ethics at a local community college. Her book, "Spiritual Practices for the Brain: Caring for Mind, Body and Soul," was released in 2020 by Loyola Press, and is a finalist for the Association of Catholic Publishers 2021 "Spirituality" book award. Her first book, "A Year of Spiritual Companionship" was published by SkyLight Paths in 2016. Currently, Anne is a frequent lecturer and retreat leader, presenting topics that combine neuroscience, positive psychology, and spirituality to groups across the US and Australia.

This summer we will happily resume our annual day trip to the Utah Shakespeare Festival in Cedar City, Utah, on Wednesday, July 21.

Pricing:

- $160 per person includes round-trip bus transportation (leaving immediately after the 8am daily Mass), a sack lunch with snacks on the bus, tickets for 2 shows and dinner at Milt's Stage Stop Steak & Seafood Restaurant in between shows. Liability forms for each guest are required.
- $140 for priests or clergy

Only 50 tickets are available. Sign up, pay and complete the liability form in the SEAS Gift Shop. Questions? Contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

The Shows:

Pirates of Penzance at 2:00 p.m. (in the Randall L. Jones Theatre) — A shipload of sentimental pirates, a gaggle of giggling maidens, and a band of bumbling policemen bring fun and sparkle to one of the most charmingly silly operettas ever to grace the stage. Frederic, our hero, is bound by duty and must abandon his new-found love, Mabel, to join the pirate trade. Alas and alack! Must he truly lose Mabel, or can he find a way out of this frivolous conundrum?

A Comedy of Errors at 8:00 p.m. (out-door Engelstad Shakespeare Theatre) — Antipholus and Dromio are bewildered. Everywhere they go they seem to have already been there, and everyone they meet seems to know all about them. The more they try to unravel the lunatic events around them, the more farcical their lives become. It's double the laughter and twice the fun in Shakespeare's youthful comedy of twins and mistaken identities.

Face masks are currently required in the Randall L. Jones Theatre. Please visit www.bard.org before the trip to check for updated Covid safety protocols.
