Mercy flows... Love redeems

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

To all those who are mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, step-mothers, foster-mothers, or anyone who has "mothered" anyone in their lifetime, I'd like to wish a Happy Mother's Day! While this is not a liturgical feast, it's part of our American culture and certainly can't be ignored. Therefore, for all of you who fall into any of the above categories, THANK YOU SO MUCH for being an image of God's tender love, care and compassion in a world so desperately in need of it. May God continue to bless you for your goodness!

For myself, Mother's Day is always a bittersweet day. Why? For me, anyone in those above categories is already at home with the Lord. My mom (+Josephine Jankowski) died in 1977 when I was 16 years old, my maternal grandmother (+Anna Dulny) died in 1966, my paternal grandmother (+Veronica Jankowski) in 1986 (just 9 days before my dad), my godmother (+Rose Krochmal) in 2005 and my stepmother (+Geraldine "Bum" Jankowski) died 7 years ago in 2014.

This Mother's Day is "bitter" in that there are no more surviving "motherly" relatives left in my family; it's "sweet" in that I'm sure I can count on their intercession from their eternal dwelling place with God. I know that God, in God's ever-generous love and mercy, has welcomed them home to that magnificent place of love we all hope to attain!

And so, I believe I join with many of you for whom this Mother's Day is "bittersweet." May we never forget, especially during this month of May, that ALL OF US are privileged to have the greatest intercessor in heaven in the person of the Blessed Virgin Mary. May she, the model for all mothers, continue to lead us closer to her son so that each of us may strive to be better disciples.

As Pope Francis has asked us to pray the rosary during the month of May for an end to our pandemic, he also gave us a beautiful prayer to pray for Our Lady's intercession during these still-trying times throughout the world. Please consider adding the following to your daily prayer time:

"We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God".

In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection.

Virgin Mary, turn your merciful eyes towards us amid this coronavirus pandemic. Comfort those who are distraught and mourn their loved ones who have died, and at times are buried in a way that grieves them deeply. Be close to those who are concerned for their loved ones who are sick and who, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, cannot be close to them. Fill with hope those who are troubled by the uncertainty of the future and the consequences for the economy and employment.

Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Plead with your divine Son, as you did at Cana, so that the families of the sick and the victims be comforted, and their hearts be opened to confidence and trust.

Protect those doctors, nurses, health workers and volunteers who are on the frontline of this emergency, and are risking their lives to save others. Support their heroic effort and grant them strength, generosity and continued health.

Be close to those who assist the sick night and day, and to priests who, in their pastoral concern and fidelity to the Gospel, are trying to help and support everyone.

Blessed Virgin, illumine the minds of men and women engaged in scientific research, that they may find effective solutions to overcome this virus.

Feast of Faith

The Creed

Following the readings and the homily, we stand together and say or sing the Creed, our profession of faith. The Creed is a solemn statement of belief, a “rule of faith” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 67). It states the core of what we believe about God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The language of the Creed is knotty and difficult at times, precisely because its purpose is to express with precision what we believe about God. The Creed that we pray most often, the Nicene Creed, came out of the earliest ecumenical councils: Nicea in 325 and Constantinople in 381. It originated in a time of great controversy about the divinity of Christ, and thus the longest section of the Creed relates to Christ, truly human and truly God.

The Creed is both communal and personal: it is “we,” but it is also “I.” In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, it is only after listening to the teaching of the Church and professing faith in the Holy Trinity that the candidate is admitted to the sacraments. So it is every Sunday. We listen to the word, we profess our faith and then we come to the altar.

Support national leaders, that with wisdom, solicitude and generosity they may come to the aid of those lacking the basic necessities of life and may devise social and economic solutions inspired by farsightedness and solidarity.

Mary Most Holy, stir our consciences, so that the enormous funds invested in developing and stockpiling arms will instead be spent on promoting effective research on how to prevent similar tragedies from occurring in the future.

Beloved Mother, help us realize that we are all members of one great family and to recognize the bond that unites us, so that, in a spirit of fraternity and solidarity, we can help to alleviate countless situations of poverty and need. Make us strong in faith, persevering in service, constant in prayer.

Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course.

To you, who shine on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope, do we entrust ourselves, O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

The Presence of the Holy Spirit

We have a unique episode in the Acts of the Apostles today. A whole roomful of people are baptized with the Holy Spirit before they are baptized with water! The verb used — “the Holy Spirit ‘fell’ on them” (Acts 10:44) — is characteristic of the way the Spirit works throughout the book of Acts: powerful and surprising. Though this “baptism” is not the normative way the New Testament describes baptism, it is still a good reminder today that the Holy Spirit is not controlled by whether or not we pour water, but rather that our sacramental signs reveal the presence of the Spirit at work among us. And we have a double reinforcement of how this work is accomplished from a Letter and a Gospel bearing John’s name. It is love, self-sacrificing and self-giving love, that manifests the Spirit of Jesus in our midst. It is love that is the greatest of commandments. The Spirit is manifested equally through those who live in that love.

Fact of Faith

A Marian Glossary

“She is that woman who rejoiced in the presence of God, who treasured everything in her heart, and who let herself be pierced by the sword. Mary is the saint among the saints, blessed above all others. She teaches us the way of holiness and she walks ever at our side. She does not let us remain fallen and at times she takes us into her arms without judging us.” —Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exsultate, no. 176

Below is a brief outline of important terms about or related to the Blessed Mother.

ANNUNCIATION: The visit of the angel Gabriel to the virgin Mary to inform her that she was to be the mother of the Savior. After giving her consent to God’s word, Mary became the mother of Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ASSUMPTION: The dogma which recognizes the Blessed Virgin Mary’s singular participation in her Son’s Resurrection by which she was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, when the course of her earthly life was finished.

HAIL MARY: The prayer known in Latin as the Ave Maria. The first part of the prayer praises God for the gifts he gave to Mary as Mother of the Redeemer; the second part seeks her maternal intercession for the members of the Body of Christ, the Church, of which she is the Mother.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION: The dogma proclaimed in Christian Tradition and defined in 1854, that from the first moment of her conception, Mary — by the singular grace of God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ — was preserved immune from original sin.

MAGNIFICAT: The title commonly given to the Latin text and vernacular translation of the Canticle (or Song) of Mary that she recites at the time of the visitation. The canticle begins with “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord.”

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

MARY: The mother of Jesus. Because she is the mother of Jesus — Son of God and second Person of the Blessed Trinity — according to the flesh, she is rightly called the Mother of God (Theotokos). Mary is also called “full of grace,” and “Mother of the Church,” and in Christian prayer and devotion, “Our Lady,” the “Blessed Virgin Mary,” and the “New Eve.”

PRESENTATION: The presentation and dedication of Jesus to God by Mary and Joseph in the Temple (Lk 2:22-39), in accord with Mosaic Law concerning the first-born. At the Presentation, Simeon and Anna sum up the expectation of Israel for the long-awaited Messiah, the light of the nations and the glory of Israel, but also as a sign of contradiction. The presentation of the gifts, especially of bread and wine, is a preparatory rite for the liturgy of the Eucharist at Mass.

ROSARY: A prayer in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which repeats the privileged Marian prayer Ave Maria, or Hail Mary, in “decades” of ten prayers, each preceded by the Pater Noster (“Our Father”) and concluded by the Gloria Patri (Glory Be to the Father), accompanied by meditation on the mysteries of Christ’s life. The rosary was developed by medieval piety in the Latin church as a popular substitute for the liturgical Prayer of the Hours.

VIRGIN BIRTH: The conception of Jesus in the womb of the Virgin Mary solely by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Church’s confession of faith in the virgin birth affirms that Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit without human seed.

VIRGIN MARY: The mother of Jesus, who is honored as “ever-virgin” for her perpetual virginity.

VISITATION: At the annunciation, the angel Gabriel told Mary that she would be the mother of the savior. Gabriel also told Mary that her barren cousin, Elizabeth, had conceived a son in her old age. Mary went to visit her cousin and confirmed the truth of the angel’s words. The time she spent with Elizabeth is referred to as “the visitation.”

Saint of the Week

Our Lady of Fatima

Dates: 20th Century

Feast Day: May 13

Mary appeared to three peasant children near Fatima, Portugal, six times between May 13 and October 13, 1917, and asked for prayers for world peace and an end to World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia. She entrusted the children with three secrets regarding devotion to her Immaculate Heart, a vision of hell, and a “bishop in white” shot by soldiers firing bullets and arrows. Many connect the third secret to the attempted assassination of Blessed Pope John Paul II on May 13, 1981, and the pope thanked Mary for guiding the bullet and saving him. At the Vatican last October 13, Pope Francis stood before the statue of Our Lady from the Fatima shrine and formally entrusted the world to Mary.

Stewardship

A Stewardship Moment

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

In today's Gospel, Jesus commands his disciples, whom he calls "friends," to love one another as he loves them. Jesus uses the word "love" as a verb or a noun nine times. He also employs the word "command" or "commandment" five times. His command to love one another is explicit. Those who understand the depth of Christ's love for us have reason to be joyful. We are called to be stewards of this loving friendship; to love one another as Jesus loves us. Do we give serious attention to what this love requires of us? What is the price of this friendship with the Lord? Are we willing to pay this price to keep Christ's friendship?

—ICSC May 2021 e-Bulletin

To Love as Jesus Loves: An Easter Reflection

Excerpted from the 2021 book, The Heart of the Mission: Simple Ways to Bring People to Jesus by Cande de Leon, executive director for the Office of Mission Advancement, Diocese of Phoenix, published by Our Sunday Visitor.

Jesus has given each baptized Catholic a mission: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt 28:19-20). Our mission is to live this calling every day of our lives.

People are at the heart of the mission of the Church. Strengthening relationships, boldly growing engagement and connecting people to the mission are simple ways to bring people to Jesus. It is not complicated — we just need to bring people to Jesus. God is always drawing closer to us, so we can rest assured that he is the one doing the hard work — not us! In order to bring people to Jesus, we must start with loving and caring for people one at a time. It has to come from a genuine desire to love and show people that they matter. After all, why would anyone listen to the Good News from us, if we haven't shown them God's love?

If we are all God's children, then we have a responsibility to help each other. We are meant to live in relationship, and to be the living presence of God in the world — to show his love to the people around us. This means treating people like family, not transactions. It's easy to do this with the people we enjoy being around. It's a lot harder to put into practice when we are talking about a coworker or acquaintance who drives us crazy. But like it or not, we are all called to this. For me this is a revolutionary idea: I am not better than anyone else. The world tries to separate us all the time by putting us into categories of race, gender or socioeconomic status. Those don't really matter.

We are all children of God. It is important for all of us to try to see the people in front of us and love them like Jesus does. I invite you to join me in that, to strive each day to see people as your brothers and sisters and to treat them accordingly.

Parish Giving

Online Giving

Giving online allows you to make one-time contributions or set up automatic recurring contributions and view your complete online giving history from anywhere you have internet access. It's easy!

Simply follow these steps:

- 1) Visit the church website at www.seaslv.org.
- 2) Click on the big Give Now button.
- 3) Choose the WEEKLY OFFERTORY box or other fund you wish to give to.
- 4) Follow the onscreen instructions to either create an online profile to schedule recurring contributions, or make one-time contributions.

QR (Quick Response) Code

Easily scan our QR Code or visit <https://is.gd/seaslv> to give now. What's a QR Code? A "QR" or "Quick Response" Code is a two dimensional barcode that is readable by smartphones. You'll need a QR scanner on your smart device, which can easily be downloaded from the Google Play Store or the Apple App Store. It's quick and easy.

Give By Text

Give By Text is another quick and easy way to make a contribution with your smart phone. Text the amount you would like to give to 702-978-

7462. Example: $25. Make sure to include the dollar sign before the amount and within seconds you'll receive a text back with a link to complete the transaction.

"It Is In Giving That We Receive" Update

We are happy to report that your generous contributions to our weekly offertory during the month of April enabled us to gift $3,235.00 to Our Lady of the Valley Catholic Church in Pahrump, Nev., through our It Is In Giving That We Receive parish stewardship program.

Prince of Peace Roman Catholic Church on E. Charleston will be the recipient of this program for the month of May. If you would like to make a donation to Prince of Peace Church as part of your own personal stewardship, send your donation to SEAS, 1811 Pueblo Vista Dr., LV, NV 89128.

Make sure to clearly indicate that your donation is for PRINCE OF PEACE CHURCH. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of the month.

Our parish stewardship program was conceived through our parish pastoral council as a way to help parishes in the Diocese of Las Vegas who have suffered substantial financial hardship due to the pandemic. Each month a parish is gifted 2% of each week's offertory collection during that month.

I Send You Out on a Mission of Love

Congratulations to Our Newly Confirmed Youth

On May 8th, our Church added 39 fully initiated Catholics to its ranks! Youth and Young Adult Ministry would like to extend a heartfelt congratulations to them on their perseverance these last two years as they grew in faith and wisdom. We thank their families, their sponsors, and all those who helped lead these wonderful young Catholics to that amazing encounter with the Holy Spirit. Now, let's see what you're going to do to shine the light of Christ to the world!

Parish News

Generous pledges totaling $320,734.15 from 597 households have helped us reach 99% of our financial goal for this year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal!

With 11.5% of our membership pledging, we continue to strive for greater parish participation. All contributions received above our goal of $323,685 will be given back to our parish so please continue to give.

When you give to the CSA, you bless others in our community by providing Help, Hope and the Joy of the Gospel!

Sharing is Caring and is just as much a blessing to the giver as the receiver.

Thank you for spreading the LOVE!

Keep in Touch!

Please supply the church office with an email address if you have one so we can keep you informed of the latest parish and diocesan news. You can contact the parish office at seaschurch@seaslv.org or at 702-228-8311. We also ask that you frequently visit our website at www.seaslv.org and our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/seaslv. If you know a parishioner who does not have or use a computer, please share with them our parish and diocesan updates and encourage them to call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if they have questions or concerns.

New Safety Protocols at SEAS

As of May 1, reservations to attend Mass at SEAS are no longer necessary. Although safety protocols are starting to relax, the obligation to attend Mass in the Diocese of Las Vegas is still lifted through Sunday, May 30. While the obligation to attend Mass is lifted, we will continue to live-stream all of our Masses and services through our website, www.seaslv.org.

In addition, please note our newest safety guidelines effective May 1st:

- Social distancing has been reduced to 3 feet.
- Seating will be first come, first seated, and households should distance themselves 3 feet apart in the pews. Once the church is filled, guests will be seated in the parish hall where they can view the live-streamed Mass from the church and receive Holy Communion. Due to social distancing, seating may be limited and is not guaranteed.
- Face masks are still required to be worn by all individuals age 2 and older.
- Hands must be sanitized upon entering the church.
- Everyone will still be required to follow the guidance of the Hospitality Ministers at the end of Mass as they assist guests with the proper way to exit the church.
- Contributions to the weekly offertory and other collections will be accepted in the collection baskets in the gathering space.
- During Mass, a verbal sign of peace may be offered without physical contact.
- For everyone's safety, we continue to ask that the Eucharist be received reverently in the hand.

LPI will be at SEAS May 10-14 to Help Secure Your Advertising

Do you own a business? Would you like to remember a loved one with a weekly memorial? Are you looking to reach out to your fellow parishioners every week? Would you like to help St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish in a unique way? If so, why not advertise in our new weekly bulletin? Our bulletin needs ads! The ads and sponsorships in the bulletin will allow for us to receive our weekly bulletin at no cost to the church. Kjirsten Finnegan and Kathy Dickens from our new bulletin and parish communication partner, LPI, will be at SEAS the week of May 10 seeking new advertisers for our bulletin. You can reach Kjirsten at KFinnegan@4LPi.com or (402) 312-9955 and Kathy at KDickens@4LPi.com or (719) 650-9467. Call them today! Thank you!

Drive for Non-Food Items May 8/9

Thank you to everyone who continues to support our food pantry. With your donations to our recent food drives along with donations from the Elkhorn Stakes Church of Latter Day Saints, our shelves are full for at least the coming month, so our May Drive will be centered on non-food items; however, we will ALWAYS accept food. Learn more at seaslv.org.

Most Needed Items:

- Household Items such as toilet paper, paper towels, dish soap and cleaning supplies
- Personal Hygiene Items such as soap, deodorant, shampoo, conditioner, shaving cream and razors
- Baby Items such as diapers (sizes 4, 5 and 6), toddler pull-ups and baby wipes
- Pet supplies such as dog food, cat food and cat litter
- Ensure and Boost

Live-Streaming of Christ's Real Presence in the Tabernacle

We are live-streaming a view of our church's tabernacle which contains the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. At times when Masses or other events are not being conducted in our worship space, you can go to our parish website, www.seaslv.org, click on the "live-stream" icon on the homepage and pray before the live-streamed view of our tabernacle anytime of the day or night. You can also connect to the live stream by visiting our YouTube channel: St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Roman Catholic Church - Las Vegas. Be aware, however, that our parish life goes on, and there may be times you might see someone cleaning, or setting up for a service, or whatever. This live-streamed view is just another opportunity to be virtually close to the Eucharistic Presence of Christ in the tabernacle no matter where you are.

Confessions

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered on Mondays from 8:45 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. or until those confessions are finished. Confessions are also heard by appointment. To make an appointment, call the church office at 702-228-8311 and press (0).

All should remember, that if one cannot make it to confession, even if mortal sin is present, they still can approach to receive the Eucharist if they make an act of perfect contrition with the intention to go to Confession the next time that it is possible. Canon 916 states: "A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to celebrate Mass or receive the body of the Lord without previous sacramental confession unless there is a grave reason and there is no opportunity to confess; in this case the person is to remember the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition which includes the resolution of confessing as soon as possible."
