Dear Parishioners and Friends,

SEAS PARISH SCHOOL OFF TO A GOOD START!

Monday, August 16th, saw the beginning of another school year! We are proud to welcome 402 students this year! We're movin' on up! Even after struggling through the past COVID protocols, and still bound by many, it didn't affect our continued growth!

ROOFING/AIR CONDITIONING PROGRESS UPDATE!

It's also a good thing that we have started the re-roofing and the replacing of our aged and rapidly failing air conditioners throughout our entire campus. While the roofing project moves closer to completion, we are still awaiting the arrival of our new, more energy efficient air conditioning units, delayed due to the consequences of the ongoing Coronavirus pandemic. But, increasing and necessary "band-aid" repairs are costing us extra bucks to keep our aged units operational until the new units come in.

Thanks to your continued support of our HONORING our PAST, EMBRACING our FUTURE Capital Campaign, which helps fund these essential needs! Newer parishioners and those not familiar with our Capital Campaign, along with those parishioners who have not yet been able to participate: Watch your mail for your opportunity to help make this campaign a success for our future! Together, we continue to keep our entire parish campus in tip-top shape! Thanks, in advance, for your continued participation and care for the good of us all!

SEAS SCHOOL ADVISORY COUNCIL UPDATE

For the past several years our parish School Advisory Council consisted mostly of school parents who were appointed to serve in an advisory capacity to the pastor and principal for the continued success of our parish school. The generosity of their time and talent provided wise counsel and much hard work to keep our parish school moving successfully toward the future.

I'd like to give my personal thanks to those who most recently have served, some for many years, on our appointed parish School Advisory Council: Angela Rock-Segler (Chairperson), Cathy DeCastroverde, Ted Egerton, Michele Flaherty, Mary Guido, Andrew Kano, Brendan Keating, Michael Kennedy, Joseph Novotni, Adrina Ramos-King, Susan Roger, Karen Sagisi and Roger West. I remain very inspired by their dedication to and continued support of our parish school. This group welcomed both me and Dr. Erica Romero, our school principal, when we both began our ministries here at SEAS two years ago. Both of us remain ever grateful for all they did to help keep the quality of our faith formation and educational endeavors of our parish school in excellent shape!

Having benefitted from such a great foundation of appointed members for several years, the time has come to renew the School Advisory Council in line with guidelines set forth by the Diocese of Las Vegas Department of Catholic Schools.

Each of the appointed members of our most recent School Advisory Council, in addition to any school parents and/or active parishioners, were invited to submit an application to be considered as a possible member of the renewed School Advisory Council. Several applications were received and subsequently interviewed by a discernment team who made final recommendations to me and Dr. Romero.

We'd like to thank all those who have shown an interest in our own parish school and its future. And now, we're proud to announce the members and officers of the renewed School Advisory Council. They are: Leary Adams (Chairperson), Adrina Ramos-King (Vice-chairperson), Roger Hosford (Secretary), Magdalena Martinez, Joseph Novotni, Samantha Peckham, and John Rinaldo. In addition, Roger West has been asked, in conformity to the renewed School Advisory Guidelines, to continue on as an appointed non-voting "qualified educator" in his current capacity as a CCSD Middle School Principal. Roger has graciously agreed to continue.

The renewed School Advisory Council brings many talents to the table, including some members who have doctorates in education and others who have qualified backgrounds and experiences that can only help us for our future. Basically speaking, the specific areas of assistance the council will provide are in: 1) Strategic Planning, 2) Policy Formulation and 3) Institutional Advancement/Development.

Once again, many thanks to our outgoing School Advisory Council members, and a hearty welcome to the new members, all listed above. We look forward to the continued success of our amazing parish school!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Many people give their allegiance to something until it asks them to do something challenging or radical. Then, they find themselves rethinking whether they want to be associated with it. The same holds for God. Either we serve God, or we don't. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God's kingdom, love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, and trust that the Eucharist is in fact Jesus' very Body and Blood. For some, buying into these things may prove too difficult and a return to a life without them is preferred. But truth is truth and it can only be found in God. If we find it hard to accept it from the mouth of Christ, where else can we go to find it? The task before us is to commit to the truth even when it may be easier to pursue something else. Truth is always worth obtaining even when it is difficult. Jesus offers us the truth of life, a life that is found in his own flesh and blood and a life of discipleship.

RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION REQUESTS

I was recently caught off-guard by a request to grant a religious exemption for the purpose of not taking a vaccination against the growing Coronavirus. Please be advised that the Holy See has recently stated that "All vaccines recognized as clinically safe & effective can be used in good conscience.... The morality of vaccination depends not only on the duty to protect one's health, but to pursue the common good." Therefore, it's not only about taking the vaccine to protect ourselves, but to help protect others as well. That's why we have a moral responsibility to get vaccinated...for the common good. That's also why I have a moral responsibility to encourage getting a vaccination, not to grant a religious exemption from the vaccination.

I do, however, know of someone who cannot take the vaccine because of a severe allergy to one or some of the components that go into the vaccine. That person easily has a medical exemption and a logical reason not to take the vaccine. Nonetheless, that person also has a moral obligation to do what they can, as much as possible, to keep from getting or spreading the Coronavirus...again, for the good of the self and for the common good. That means keeping social distancing and wearing a mask in public.

This past Wednesday, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, made the following appeal to all people of good will. Here is the official text:

"In a brotherly spirit, I join in this message of hope for a brighter future. Thanks to God and to the work of many, we now have vaccines to protect us from COVID-19. They grant us the hope of ending the pandemic, but only if they are available to all and if we work together.

"Being vaccinated with vaccines authorized by the competent authorities is an act of love. And contributing to ensure the majority of people are vaccinated is an act of love. Love for oneself, love for one's family and friends, love for all people. Love is social and political, there is social love and political love; it is universal, always overflowing with small gestures of personal charity capable of transforming and improving societies (cf. Laudato si', no 231, cf. Fratelli tutti, 184).

"Vaccination is a simple but profound way of promoting the common good and caring for each other, especially the most vulnerable. I pray to God that everyone may contribute their own small grain of sand, their own

FIRST READING

"Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God." (Jos 24:18)

PSALM

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 34)

SECOND READING

This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church. (Eph 5:32)

GOSPEL

*Simon Peter answered him,
"Master to whom shall we go?
You have the words of eternal life."
(Jn 6:68)*

small gesture of love; no matter how small, love is always great. Contribute with these small gestures for a better future.

"God bless you, and thank you."

In union with our Holy Father, can we come together and help each other conquer this pandemic? The vaccine has already proven to be an effective way out of this mess, but only if we all cooperate. Let's not argue or condemn others, but do what we can to help each other, especially those most vulnerable. Together we can help put an end to supplying this Coronavirus with an unvaccinated playground so it can be "fruitful and multiply" into even more deadly variants. Together, we can make a difference for the better by participating in this small "act of love!"

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Joshua, who helped settle the Israelites into the Promised Land, knew the struggle ahead lay in Israel's fidelity to God. How does anyone best show fidelity to God?

Second Reading:

Toward the end of his letter, Paul takes up the topic of husbands and wives. He speaks of the importance of mutual subordination and love. What do you see as secret to a successful marriage?

Gospel:

Jesus' bread of life discourse ends with the report that "many of Jesus' disciples" no longer followed Jesus. How should we respond to family or friends who choose to walk away from Jesus?"

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question: We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer: The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, "In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we're there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

to the

Call

Submission as Stewardship

We aren't comfortable with the idea of submission. Our society champions equality, and rightly so — but it's a mistake to think that submission is at odds with equality. To submit ourselves fully, we must first be free. We must first be our own masters. God has granted us that freedom with the salvation He offers. We are no longer the slaves of sin. Now He asks us to be subordinate to one another, in the name of Christ.

What a completely uncomfortable task! What He's asking is for us to be subordinate to the person who irritates us the most. The person we really can't stand. The person who doesn't respect us or appreciate what we have to offer. The person we think we're smarter than, more talented than. The person we envy.

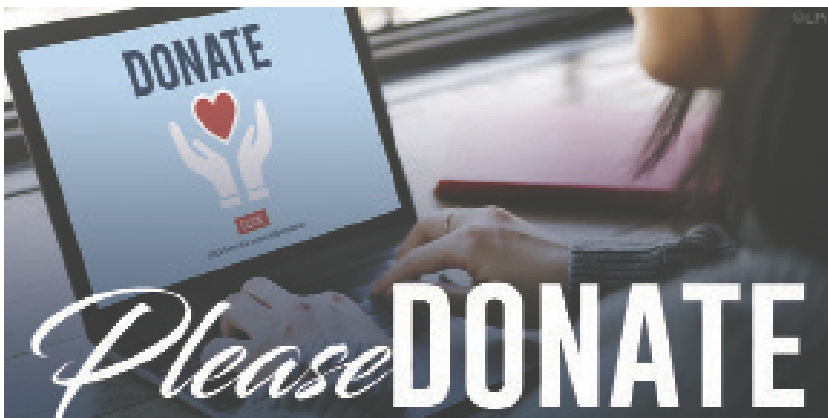

That's the real challenge of stewardship, isn't it? Subordination. Inconveniencing myself by giving of time, of money, of relationship. Putting the needs or wants of another above my own when they haven't done anything special to earn it.

I invite you to consider the cross—the most radical expression of submission, and of stewardship, that ever existed. If there was ever someone who deserved superiority, isn't it the God who let Himself be nailed to a tree, who gave so freely of His life, His body, His blood, His everything?

To look at him in his agony is to truly understand the beauty of submission—of laying down what you have for the good of the other.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Next and Final “Living the Beatitudes” Bible Study Class Will Meet the Week of August 23

Topic: “Blessed are the Pure of Heart”

In this beatitude, Jesus reminds us that nothing should distract us from God. It challenges us to have a single-hearted commitment to God and to God’s will. St. Thomas More (from the movie A Man for All Seasons) will be our guide as we explore what it means to be people of faith-filled integrity. This class will be held on Monday, August 23 (6:30pm - 8pm) and repeated on Wednesday, August 25 (9:30am - 11am). Come to the parish hall classrooms—no cost, no registration. Questions? Contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org or 702-804-8370.

NEW Bible Study Coming in September:

Women in the Old Testament

While the men of the Old Testament often garner the most attention, the women of the Old Testament also have much to share. They are mothers and wives, queens and slaves, prophets and warriors, powerful women and victims—each playing a powerful role in God’s story of salvation found in Sacred Scripture. Sessions for this 10-week study begin the week of September 13, and will be held Mondays (6:30pm-8:00 pm) and repeated Wednesdays (9:30am-11:00am) in the parish hall classrooms. Wednesday sessions will also be live-streamed. The cost of $25 includes a commentary and study guide. Register at seaslv.org or in the gift shop. # PROGRESS ON THE ROOF

If you are afraid of heights, roofing is probably not the job for you. But for Commercial Roofers, Inc., it's just another day at the office for their workers as they scale the buildings throughout our campus replacing our 25 year old, deteriorated roof. They worked diligently through the months of June and July—covered from head to toe during some of the hottest days of the year—to ensure the school roof would be completed before the start of the new school year. Mission accomplished! They have since moved over to the parish hall, chapel and church to continue their work.

During the past 2 weeks, daily Mass was celebrated in the chapel while repairs were made on the church. Now they will proceed with replacing the damaged roof over the administrative offices. Replacement of a number of old, failing air conditioning units will take place in the weeks ahead.

Replacing the roof and irreparable air conditioning units throughout our property were two deferred maintenance needs identified in our HONORING our PAST, EMBRACING our FUTURE Capital Campaign. To date, the three-year campaign has generated just over $2.5 million in pledges toward our original $4.5 million goal, and $1.6 million of those pledges have been paid in full. Through campaign contributions and pledge payments we were able to pay off an $820,000 construction loan last year—a goal our parishioners ranked as the highest priority of the campaign. Now we are focusing on the maintenance projects that were also designated as high-priority. It is good to see this work in progress. The overall cost of this current project is approximately $1.5 million. Your continued pledge payments and support of our campaign will help ensure this project can be paid for without depleting our savings. Thank you for your generosity!

Mass of Sending Forth for Seminarians

On Monday, August 16, the Diocese of Las Vegas celebrated the Mass of Sending Forth at SEAS for the seminarians in our diocese. Thank you to Bishop Thomas, Bishop Gordon, the Knights of Columbus, and all the priests and clergy who were in attendance to make this Mass a wonderful celebration. We especially want to thank the families, friends, and parishioners from throughout our diocese who came to show our seminarians how much they are appreciated. And to our seminarians, thank you for answering the call to follow this vocation. We will keep all of you in our prayers as you continue this journey. Pictured above: Bishop Thomas and Bishop Gordon extend a blessing to the seminarians of the Diocese of Las Vegas. Pictured below: Bishop Gordon and Bishop Thomas joined by priests and deacons from our diocese.

THE WEEK AHEAD

Save the Date: Weekend of September 11-12

Make sure to stop by the SEAS Sidewalk Ministry Fair after all Masses the weekend of September 11-12, right in front of the church! It will be hard to miss! See all of the ministries, organizations and social groups in one place! Learn what each ministry does and how you can get involved; meet others who share the same interests as you; volunteer for outreach opportunities; look at new ways to grow your faith and engage in parish life! Stop by, have a refreshing beverage and see what's happening at SEAS!

Maybe there is a ministry SEAS does not offer that you think would be a good fit for our parish. Maybe you have a special talent or passion you would like to share with our parish as part of your own personal stewardship. You'll have the opportunity to share your thoughts in our TIME & TALENT SURVEY.

For additional information, contact our Pastoral Associate for Stewardship and Communications Patty Janura (702-804-8326) at PattyJanura@seaslv.org.
