*An opportunity to reflect on the challenge to grow as
Men of Faith in a culture often not supportive of this journey.
Discovering the richness of community as men on a journey together who desire to know the Lord in a deeper and more life-giving way.*

About the Men's Retreat Leader:

Fr. Fred Wendel grew up in Atlanta, Georgia. After time in the Army and his completion of college, he decided to go west and was accepted by the Diocese of Cheyenne, Wyoming. In August of 1974, he began seminary at St. Thomas Seminary in Denver, CO. He was ordained a priest on June 9, 1978. He served in Wyoming until 1997 also joining the Wyoming Army National Guard as a Priest Chaplain in 1989. He returned to the Archdiocese of Atlanta in 1997 and was pastor of several parishes. While there he built a church in a very growing area of Atlanta. He also transferred to the Georgia National Guard. In 2008, Fr. Fred went on Active Duty with the Army. He retired in 2014 from the Army but continued as a Retiree Recall until 2017. His last assignment was in Arlington, VA at Fort Myer. In 2017, he returned to Atlanta and completed 2 years of ministry until his retirement at age 70 in 2019. In 2020, he returned to active ministry as Director of the Catholic Center at the University of Georgia. He retired again in 2022 and built a home in Mesquite, NV. From July of 2023 until July of 2024 he returned to Atlanta as a pastor. Realizing the need to be closer to his home, he returned to Nevada in July of 2024. In contact with the Archdiocese of Las Vegas, Fr. Fred offered his services for a while longer and became the Parish Administrator of St. James in Las Vegas on August 1, 2024. Fr. Fred loves ministry and also enjoys working out, traveling, reading and discovering new adventures.

Answer: Egypt

LIVE THE LITURGY

Anna and Simeon saw greatness and glory in the face of a tiny babe. Jesus was insignificant in the eyes of others who looked for the Messiah in the gilded halls of kings. But Anna and Simeon recognized God when they saw him. Do we?

DEVOTIONS EXPLAINED

St. Blaise Blessing of the Throat — February 3

Perhaps it's an example of divine providence that the feast of St. Blaise falls on February 3 — right in the middle of cold and flu season! This fourth-century Armenian saint was a bishop and martyr and is venerated as the patron of those who suffer from illnesses of the throat.

On his feast day, Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat. This blessing is administered by a priest, deacon or a lay minister who follows the rites and prayers designated for a layperson. During the blessing, the minister takes two candles that were blessed on the feast of the Presentation and makes a cross in front of the throat, saying "Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness." A priest or deacon will then make the sign of the cross.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATION

Presentation of the Lord

What is the secret to sharing in God's power to overcome our difficulties? Mary teaches us this in the prophecy of her pierced heart. This Sunday, the old man Simeon prophesies that when her son faces opposition, Mary's soul will be pierced by a sword. The seemingly pointless agony of a mother helplessly watching her son be mocked, tortured, killed and then cruelly desecrated in death by a spear — somehow this piercing of her heart releases a power by which "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" (Luke 2:35). What to make of this?

Whatever problems we currently face, the deepest threat is finally that evil thoughts are hidden in the human heart: hatred, envy, pride, lust, greed and so on. Behind every tyrant's injustice, for example, is a heart unpierced by love. Evil hides in our hearts. Mary's pierced heart, and its suffering love for her son, reveals and scatters these evil thoughts, and replaces them with love, forgiveness, generosity and peace.

This week, I invite us to ponder Mary's pierced heart. Her heart is quietly at work for us in the Church and world, exposing our evil thoughts and making a path for her son's divine love. This is how she gently cooperates in our salvation. Closed hearts are our biggest problem; love-pierced hearts are the ultimate power to overcome every difficulty.

— Father John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question: Luke's Gospel is the only one to mention the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. What is Luke trying to communicate here and what connection does it have with Mary?

Answer: February 2 is exactly forty days after December 25, the nativity of Jesus. Jewish law (Ex 13:2, 12) dictated that Jesus, as the firstborn, be consecrated to God. This was done by the parents as they presented their Son in the Temple.

Jewish law further specified (Lv 12:2-8) that a mother was ritually impure after giving birth, and that she had to wait a set period of time (forty days for a boy) before she was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord for purification.

The convergence of these two Jewish regulations occasions Luke's account of both the Presentation of the Lord and the Purification of Mary. These days the liturgical emphasis is more on the Presentation of Jesus. Luke highlights the role of Simeon and Anna, two righteous Jews who recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and praised God for being able to see and experience such a marvel in their lifetimes.

Simeon's prayer concerning the special role of Jesus states that Jesus is "a light for revelation to the Gentiles." This phrase eventually originated the custom of blessing candles on this day which were to be used in the ceremonies, rituals, and processions throughout the church year. Thus February 2 is also known as Candlemas Day. This day is indeed a rich feast to be savored.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Malachi prophesied a coming messenger who will purify those making offerings to the Lord. How do you prepare for Sunday worship?

Second Reading: Hebrews teaches that Jesus was tested and suffered so that he could be merciful and understanding with our struggles and challenges. What are you facing this week that Jesus could help you with?

Gospel: Mary and Joseph received incredible news from Simeon and Anna about the infant Jesus at his presentation in the Temple. Who helps you process startling or unsettling information?

Audio/Visual Volunteers Wanted

We are looking for volunteers to join our Audio/Visual team to help run the Mass slides and live-stream the 6 a.m. and 8 a.m. Sunday Masses and the 8 a.m. daily Mass Monday through Saturday. Teens, young adults, and seniors are all welcome. Not computer savvy? Don't worry! We'll show you all you need to know. If interested, please contact Pastoral Associate for Stewardship and Communications, Patty Janura at 702-804-8326 or PattyJanura@seaslv.org. Your help is greatly appreciated!

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The Thoughts of Many Hearts

When Simeon cradles the infant Messiah in his arms, he speaks of salvation and glory and revelation. He speaks of his own death. He speaks of the fulfillment of God's promise to all people. But most memorable, in my opinion, are his words about the hearts of men. This Child, he says, will be the way "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Perhaps you're like me. Perhaps you don't enjoy scrutinizing yourself, your actions, your intentions. You don't like reflecting on why you feel or react the way you do, and you really don't enjoy measuring those feelings and reactions against what you know they could be. It's exhausting to sit with God, your heart in your hands, both of us looking at it, talking about it. So far too often, I opt out.

The oldest trick of the devil, you see, is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do. There are so many other things I could be doing, after all. Answering emails. Catching up on laundry. Scrolling Facebook. Worrying about inflation. Stressing about my kid's dance recital and next week's busy schedule.

But where is God truly at work? Where is the place God will point to, when my life on Earth has come to its close? It is the very depths of my heart. The place where I am my most authentic self, for better or worse. The place where all my pretensions crumble away, and I am alone with the truth of who I am and what I choose to do. Am I brave enough to look into the depths of my own heart?

"In Giving, We Receive" — SEAS Stewardship Program

Prince of Peace Roman Catholic Church will be the February 2025 recipient of our parish stewardship program, "In Giving, We Receive." Through this program, we gift parishes and charitable organizations within the Archdiocese of Las Vegas 2% of our weekly offertory collections for the month. The Archdiocese of Las Vegas helps identify which parishes have the greatest need. To help Prince of Peace Church as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR PRINCE OF PEACE, and drop it in any Sunday collection basket. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of February.

How Often Do We REALLY Pray?

Is your prayer life lacking? Do you have good intentions to spend more time in prayer but just can't seem to fit quality prayer time into your day? Why not consider signing up to be a member of the Beloved Disciples Adoration Society and commit to spending an hour with the Lord each week in Eucharistic Adoration in the Mater Dei Chapel? Making the commitment to spend one hour a week in Adoration can be the first step in growing your prayer life and growing closer to Christ. To register go to www.adorationpro.org/seaslv. Detailed directions on how to register can be found at www.seaslv.org under Adoration Chapel.

LAS VEGAS

Archdiocese of Las Vegas Issues Statement on Immigration

The Archdiocese of Las Vegas is committed to upholding the dignity and respect of all individuals, and we discourage any efforts that indiscriminately target our faith communities, whether these actions occur in workplaces or places of worship. Across the Country, the Catholic Church is prepared to work with the Trump administration to address the complexities of immigration, and we hope that any enforcement measures are judiciously applied and limited to individuals who present risks and dangers to society, particularly reducing gang activity, drug trafficking, and human trafficking.

“Making This Lent Count!” — Women’s Lenten Reflection

All women of the parish are welcome to join our SEAS Women of Joy on Saturday, February 15, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for a special reflection: “MAKING THIS LENT COUNT!” Each year, Catholics around the world make resolutions to “give up” something (candy, smoking, gossiping, etc.) or “do more” (be more kind, more giving, more compassionate, etc.) in preparation for the great feast of Easter. But then Easter comes and goes and we wonder: How faithful was I to my resolutions? Did I seek God, serve others, and practice self-control? In other words, did I really make my Lent count? By giving things up or doing something extra, we aren’t engaged in an effort to make ourselves special; we are engaging in an effort to grow closer to Christ. So how can I grow closer to Jesus this Lent?

Fr. Joachim Ozonze, our parochial vicar, will guide our reflection and offer some practical suggestions on how you can make the 40 days of Lent more spiritually enriching. We will meet on Saturday, February 15, at 9:30 a.m. in the parish hall classrooms for refreshments and “getting to know you” time with Fr. Joachim’s reflection to follow. Invite a friend and make plans to join our Women of Joy for this special morning! No registration or cost required.

Seton Singles Over-50 Social Club

If you are single, over 50, and looking for new friends and activities then come join the Seton Singles. Our next monthly meeting will be held on Saturday, February 8, at 5:30 p.m. in the parish hall. Our fun meetings include a potluck meal and friendly conversation. Activities vary with game nights, happy hours, Bingo nights, and dine-outs. To learn more, contact Kathy Lorenzo at 702-647-1807 or www.setonsingleslv@gmail.com.

For Those Who Have Fallen Away from the Catholic Church

Statistics show that most people who have drifted away from the Catholic Church still identify themselves as Catholics. Many want to return, but don’t know where to start. Do you know somebody — a spouse, parent, child, friend, or co-worker — who has been away from the Catholic Church? Often, all it takes is a word of invitation to engage them. Invite them to explore our Welcome Home Ministry. We offer a series of sessions designed to help seekers find answers to their questions, rediscover their Catholic roots, and gently return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. Our next 9-week program begins February 18. Sessions will be held on Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. Questions? Contact Marcie Wilske at 702-804-8370 or mwilske@seaslv.org for more information.

Gift Shop News

Sursum Corda "Lift Up Your Hearts" Gift Shop has new items including holy water bottles, medals, and holy cards. We also have new shawls and wraps for those who get chilly in the church! Come check them out! We are still waiting for the 2025 Sunday Missal. They should be arriving soon! And as always, thank you for your patience and patronage! Blessings, Sarah Carriere, Gift Shop/Office Manager.

SEAS Filipino-American (Fil-Am) Society

The next meeting of the Fil-Am Society will be held on Thursday, February 13, at 9 a.m. in the parish hall. Questions on how to become a member? Contact Vida Braganza at 702-338-7478 or vida.braganza@gmail.com. We welcome all SEAS parishioners. Any individual age 18 and older, without regard to race, color, sex, disability, or natural origin, who supports the Filipino heritage and culture is welcome to become a member.

Knights of Columbus

The next monthly meeting of the Knights of Columbus Mother Seton Council 11029 will be held Thursday, February 13, at 6:45 p.m. in the parish hall. The Knights are looking for a few good Catholic men to join in their mission of empowering Catholic men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work, and in their community. The Knights are very active in charitable works. If you would like to learn more, contact Grand Knight Vince Krack at 702-704-5377 or krackv@cox.net.
