MERCY FLOWS LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

WELCOME FR. JOSEPH!

This weekend we give a warm St. Elizabeth Ann Seton WELCOME to our new Parochial Vicar (Associate Pastor), Fr. Joseph Le, C.Ss.R.! Fr. Joseph is a member of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, more commonly known as the "Redemptorists." The Diocese of Las Vegas now has three Redemptorists: Fr. Thomas Ha, C.Ss.R. (Pastor of Our Lady of La Vang), Fr. Joseph Quang Nguyen, C.Ss.R. (Parochial Vicar at St. Thomas More), and our own Fr. Joseph Le, C.Ss.R.!

Next weekend's bulletin will have a more complete biography of Fr. Joseph. Nonetheless, we welcome him to his new ministry among us and look forward to another great new beginning here at SEAS!

GEE WHIZ! HOW TIME FLIES!

July 1 marks the beginning of my third year as your pastor. The first nine months was spent getting to know the ropes of this vibrant Summerlin parish family. Then the Coronavirus took hold of the world, and the past 15 months have been spent dealing with shut-downs, restrictions, protocols, and how to effectively minister in the midst of a global pandemic. It was almost like starting a new church from scratch! I thank God every day for such a wonderful parish and school staff who have been faithfully accompanying me through these months of trial. I also thank God for those of you, faithful members of SEAS' family and friends, who have been so very cooperative, supportive and encouraging during these times as well!

We're still not quite back to "normal," whatever that was or whatever it will be! But through all the adjustments and transitions of our recent past, we've learned, the hard way, that the only sure thing in life is change! We had to change our approach to life and our dealings with one another and society in general. And, we're still not out of the woods completely! Change and adaptations will continue.

The present challenge for me, and I'm sure for many of you, is "how do we handle the changes and adjustments now and in the days to come?" This, I believe, is where our faith helps us the most: we turn to the one who loves us most. In all the circumstances of life, it is Jesus who is always by our side. Like those who profess the vows of marriage, we trust that God is with all of us in "the good times and the bad, in sickness and in health..." The only constant in all times of change and adjustments is the unconditional love and accompaniment of our merciful God who never abandons us.

And so I thank ALL OF YOU who have reflected and continue to reflect the unconditional love of God in all you say and do! You give testimony that, even during the continued uncertainties of these days, we strive to remain united as a family of faith. Causing division, being judgmental, pointing fingers at others, declaring who's worthy of Christ's love: none of these are part of the job description of a missionary disciple of the Lord. Though we are all different, our mutual respect for each other gives testimony that we're on the right track! That mutual respect seems to be alive and well at SEAS!

So, God's blessings upon ALL of you as I begin my third year as your pastor and as we accompany each other on the journey. Together, we will continue to follow God's call to live unconditional love!

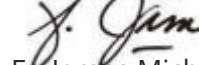

NEW BULLETIN...NEW SPONSORS TOO!

This weekend reveals our new bulletin from Liturgical Publications, Inc. It also reveals many new ads of those businesses and individuals whose generosity sponsor the production of this weekly mode of communication. Please check out the ads and patronize these businesses and organizations, if possible. If you have a chance, please let them know how grateful you are for their sponsorship! Because of them, we have this bulletin at no cost to us!

HAPPY 4TH OF JULY!

As we celebrate our nation's independence this weekend, let us never forget our dependence on God. The Declaration of Independence clearly states: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." The more independent from God our nation becomes...well, just look around and see. "Freedom of religion" has become "freedom from religion." Therefore, if we ask God to bless America, may America learn once again to bless God! May we take time this holiday weekend to thank God for the blessings and freedom we are privileged to enjoy, and offer a prayer for those in the world who still long for "Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

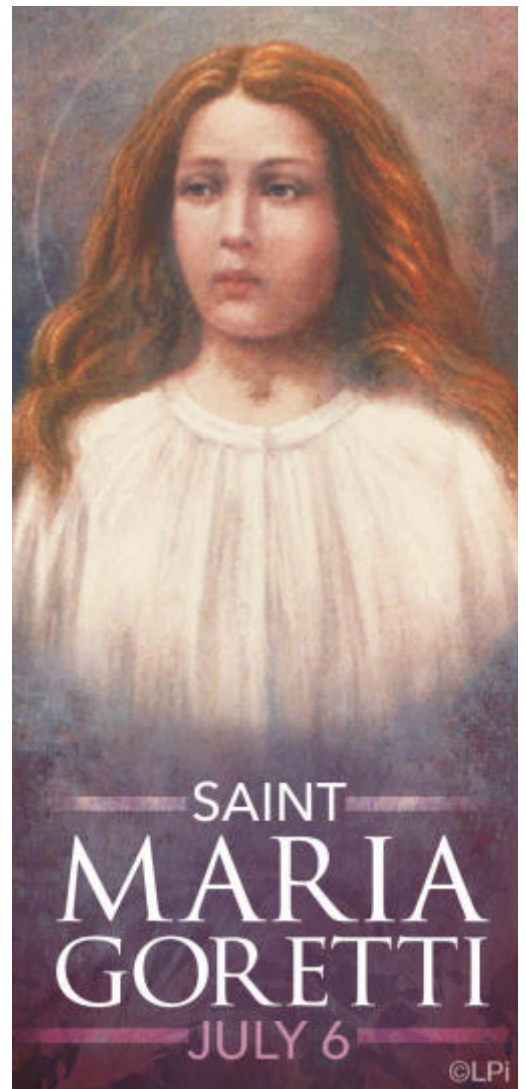

Inspiration for the week

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

Welcome,
Fr. Joseph!

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

*But you shall say to them:
Thus says the Lord GOD!
And whether they heed or resist
— for they are a rebellious house — they shall know that a prophet has been among them. (Ez 2:4-5)*

PSALM

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy. (Ps 123)

SECOND READING

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. (2 Cor 12:9)

GOSPEL

*Jesus said to them,
“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.”
(Mk 6:4)*

GOSPEL MEDITATION

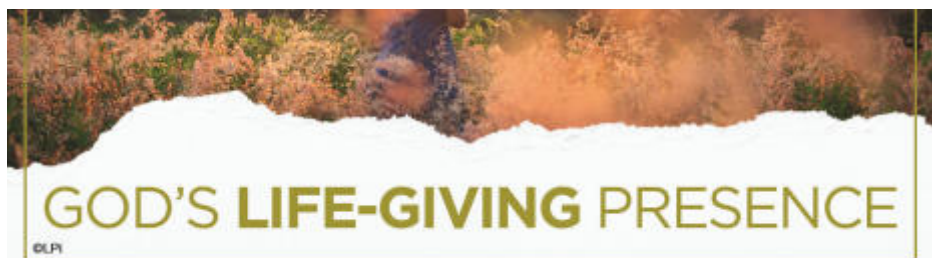

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Today’s reading is an excerpt from the prophetic call Ezekiel received while in exile in Babylon (Ez 1:1-3:27). The Lord commissioned Ezekiel to go and confront the “rebellious house” of Israel. How do you imagine the Israelites received Ezekiel’s message?

Second Reading:

Paul learned that the “thorn in his flesh” taught him to be humble and dependent upon God’s grace alone. Where do you see God’s grace most present in your life?

Gospel:

Jesus was “amazed” at the lack of faith his fellow Nazareans had in him, suggesting Jesus expected a different response. Why do you think the villagers of Nazareth “took offense” at Jesus?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question: Our Catholic grade school recently did a penance service. Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Answer: Ask any mom about her children and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they’re doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what’s wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God’s unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an “Our Father” or two!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Prophecy of You and Me

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also pass it on, to share it, to let the Spirit set us on our feet.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Cuando la Vida Interior Hace la Diferencia: Una fe que nos pone de pie Septiembre 18, 2021

“Por sobre todas las cosas cuida tu corazón, porque de él mana la vida”, nos enseña el libro de Proverbios (Prov 4, 23). El poder sanador de Jesús, la ternura que derrama sobre los extraviados y excluidos, sus Palabras que transforman corazones tienen mucho que ver con su profunda vida interior, con la intimidad constante con el Padre que relatan los evangelios. Un seguidor de Jesús debe alimentar su vida interior si desea ser fermento de sanación en su familia, su comunidad y su entorno eclesial. Te invitamos a descubrir la importancia de la vida espiritual y a descubrir juntos algunos recursos prácticos para alimentarla.

The Shows:

Pirates of Penzance at 2:00 p.m. (in the Randall L. Jones Theatre) — A shipload of sentimental pirates, a gaggle of giggling maidens, and a band of bumbling policemen bring fun and sparkle to one of the most charmingly silly operettas ever to grace the stage. Frederic, our hero, is bound by duty and must abandon his new-found love, Mabel, to join the pirate trade. Can he find a way out of this conundrum?

A Comedy of Errors at 8:00 p.m. (out-door Engelstad Shakespeare Theatre) — Everywhere Antipholus and Dromio go they seem to have already been there, and everyone they meet seems to know all about them. The more they try to unravel the lunatic events around them, the more farcical their lives become. It's twice the fun in Shakespeare's youthful comedy of twins and mistaken identities.

Face masks are currently required in the Randall L. Jones Theatre. Please visit www.bard.org to check for updated Covid safety protocols.

For more information contact our office at 702-804-8306 or Faithformation@seaslv.org.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please show your support for our parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin at no cost every week without them. When you shop with them, let them know where you saw their ad and give them a big SEAS Thank You!

Jesus said to them,
“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own home.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.
