MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

IN GRATITUDE

There's a couple of things I'd like to offer some sincere gratitude for your goodness. You know, the generosity from the heart comes as a response to God's unconditional love for each one of us. Just look at the generous response our parish offered to the unplanned appeal for help with the massive destruction in Haiti... over $12,000! Thank you to all who were able to respond so generously to the need at hand, and thanks to everyone who offered the invaluable gift of prayer. Goodness flows freely!

And then there was the wonderful response of support for our seminarians as we hosted the Annual Mass of Sending Forth on August 16th. At the recent Presbyteral Council meeting I attended this past week, Bishop Thomas asked me to share his sincere gratitude for the support and hospitality our parish offered for that special evening. Thanks to ALL who were able to be there and show your love and encouragement for those men discerning the call to the priesthood.

And then there was last week's Ministry Fair which was absolutely amazing! The weather was a bit windy and too hot to stay outside, so indoors we went...and that was a great decision! I joked at the end of the Masses last weekend that we even moved the tents inside just in case it rained in the hall!

I would say about 10-15% of people who attended the various Masses came over to the hall. That's a pretty typical response, though we hoped more people would have come. But those who were able to come to the parish hall were treated to some great popcorn, cookies, beverages and various snacks as they browsed the various "booths." There were several people who signed up for more information about the many ministries and groups located here at SEAS. The Spirit is a movin' among the hearts of our people, and last weekend was proof of that!

So, many thanks go out to everyone who spent time setting up and hosting the various booths. They answered many questions and encouraged people to consider where God might want them to offer their time and talent.

But, with every great event comes tons of prep led by dedicated leadership. Many thanks to our own Patty Janura, Pastoral Associate for Stewardship and Communications, for the many extra hours that went into the planning, organizing and implementing such a great ministry fair. It was the best I've ever attended, and I've attended some pretty great ministry fairs in the past! So, thanks to Patty and many of our staff who helped bring it all together, especially as everything had to move very quickly from the outside to the inside. There's too many to list everyone, but you know who you are and how much all your hard work was greatly appreciated!

Nonetheless, I do have to single out a very special and dedicated young man who spent many hours on Saturday and Sunday as a special "assistant" to Patty. A load of thanks to Brandon Kerr, one of our own 8th graders, who gave so freely of his time and talent. He's an inspiration to us, and an encouragement for other young people to put their faith in action. Thanks, Brandon!

There's never a dull moment!

Parish life is never boring! In addition to our wonderful Ministry Fair, last Sunday afternoon found a flurry of action in our parish center.

First, there was our many dedicated volunteers who helped in our food pantry and gave such great assistance when our local Mormon brothers and sisters delivered a whole truckload of food they collected for our pantry! We were very grateful and impressed with the generous amount of food they brought to our pantry, and they were very impressed by our food pantry and how we get the food into the hands of the needy. What a great cooperative effort to help Christ in the poor! And, it's all under the great leadership of Patti McGuire, Pastoral Associate for Human Concerns and her great team of volunteers. Many thanks to all who had a part in that busy afternoon!

And then there was the orientation meeting for parents and teens who will be partaking of our Confirmation Program. Both the St. Paul VI and St. John XXIII classrooms in the parish hall were filled...another sign of the good things happening here. Thanks to Sean Donohue, Pastoral Associate for Youth and Young Adult Ministries, along with his assistants, Tyler Ofalsa and Cathy Sales. Helping them out that busy Sunday afternoon were some of our teens who were previously Confirmed and wanted to come back and help! That's a sure testimony as to the movement of the Holy Spirit in our young people!

That was all just last weekend! Whew! And then there's the rest of the week when SEAS is fluttering with regular parish life and a vibrant parish school! We are blessed and so very grateful to everyone who gives of their lives for the sake of the Gospel, and for all of you who support the good works through your generosity. We're in this together, and pray that we keep moving forward with this part of the Lord's kingdom entrusted to our care! Thank you, everyone!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

What does it mean to be God's servant? In essence, it means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing all that a joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, and rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first, and justice pursued at all cost. The prayer of this kind of servant is not focused on self-advancement or need. Rather, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then be used to lay the cornerstones of the kingdom: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Deeper Understanding of Scripture

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

Thank You for Coming to the Ministry Fair!

Thank you to all the ministries and organizations who participated in last weekend's Ministry Fair, to all who helped with the preparations behind the scenes, and to all who attended. If you didn't have an opportunity to attend but are interested in participating in ministry opportunities, contact information for our ministries and the organizations and social groups who meet at our parish is always listed on page 14 of our weekly bulletin. We look forward to hearing from you!

MINISTRY FAIR MOMENTS

The View from the Back of the Line

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They're the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They're the one who's always "doing" for others. They're never gossiping or sniping or complaining.

We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We're a little envious, even if we don't let ourselves acknowledge it.

That, folks, is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they're smiling so much.

We've all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it. We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we "earn" whatever it is we came for—sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That's how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always.

It's exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom—one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don't seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially.

If you have a person in your life who always seems happy "doing" for others, it's because by a boatload of God's grace, they play by the rules of the other place. Watch and take notes—and don't be afraid to join them at the back of the line.

* Amount Pledged	$371,712.15
* Cash / Payments Received	$344,333.15
* Rebate to SEAS So Far	$ 20,648.15
* Number of Donors	679

To make a pledge or contribution to CSA, visit www.seaslv.org for directions, or contact Patty Janura at PattyJanura@seaslv.org or 702-804-8326. We thank those whose pledges and contributions have helped us surpass the diocesan goal for our parish. Now, all contributions made to CSA will be rebated back to SEAS. This appeal continues throughout the year so if you haven't made your 2021 CSA contribution yet, there is still time to do so!

Books of the Month

Our book sale continues with assorted $5 religious books and children's religious DVDs. We also have a limited number of the September and October issues of "Give Us This Day" and "Magnificat." This month's featured books are, 50 Questions from the Pews and Come to the Feast: An Invitation to Eucharistic Transformation. Both books are written by Fr. Richard N. Fragomeni, PhD, and come as a set for $18.00. Thank you for your patronage!

My Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

The Diocese of Las Vegas' annual second collection for Seminary and Clergy Education and Development takes place this weekend, September 18 and 19. This collection helps offset the cost of tuition, housing and the education of our seminarians, and it also supplements the ongoing education of our priests.

I am so very happy to report that this year's seminary class is one of the largest in the history of the Diocese of Las Vegas with a total of ten men studying for the priesthood! Three of the seminarians are studying at Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon, one at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein, Illinois, three at St. John's Seminary in Camarillo, California, two in pastoral assignments in the Diocese, and one former Episcopalian priest following the plan of studies provided by St. Mary's Seminary in Texas.

Our Diocese is blessed to have priests who give so generously of their lives to the service of the Church and its people.

Your continued support of this collection conveys your appreciation of our seminarians and priests. I ask that you keep them in your prayers.

Assuring you of my prayers, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

†George Leo Thomas
Bishop of Las Vegas

Recognizing the Stranger Forum

The next Recognizing the Stranger forum will be held at SEAS on Monday, September 27, from 5pm-6:30pm in the parish hall. During this forum you will have the chance to view through the lens of our Catholic faith the issues and struggles immigrants in our community face everyday. Actually, these insights and tools can be applied to anyone who is struggling or living on the margins. Won't you join us?

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Catholicism is a way of life, and becoming a Catholic is a life long journey in faith. The RCIA is primarily a journey of faith. It is a process which educates in the Catholic faith, and, if so desired, prepares adults to receive the sacraments of the Church. More than that, it involves entering into a relationship with the risen Christ and a community of God's people.

Our next RCIA sessions begin the week of September 23, 2021. For more information, please fill out the Adult Faith Formation Registration form at www.seaslv.org under the FAITH FORMATION FOR ALL AGES tab. You may also contact Helen Silva at hsilva@seaslv.org (702-804-8351).

Welcome Home: For Adults in Need of the Sacrament of Confirmation

If you know someone who has fallen away from the Catholic Church and would like to return, or if you are age 19 or older and are in need of the Sacrament of Confirmation to complete your initiation into the Catholic Church, our Welcome Home program can help. There are many reasons why baptized Catholics who have received the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church by receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Regardless of your situation, we invite you to grow in your faith and complete your sacramental initiation into the Church. Welcome Home sessions begin the week of October 4, 2021. For more information, fill out the Adult Faith Formation Registration form at www.seaslv.org under the FAITH FORMATION FOR ALL AGES tab. You may also contact Helen Silva at hsilva@seaslv.org (702-804-8351).

Adoption is the Option

Making an adoption plan is a very courageous and selfless parenting choice. Our compassionate staff is available to help you create a customized plan.

MORE PARISH INFORMATION

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please show your support for our parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin at no cost every week without them. When you shop with them, let them know where you saw their ad and give them a big SEAS Thank You!

Play Hard

We Invite You to Register at Our Parish

In order that we may better serve you, please register with the parish by visiting www.seaslv.org or downloading the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton App. Registration forms are also available in the gathering space of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if you need to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at home or in a hospital. For assistance after hours or on Sundays, call the answering service at 702-388-9571. A priest will be notified and will contact you directly. The Sacrament is also offered communally within the Mass. Watch the bulletin for upcoming Anointing of the Sick Masses, scheduled on a quarterly basis.

Holy Communion for the Sick

In case of hospitalization, inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and would like to receive Communion.

Funeral Ministry

In the event of a death of a loved one, please contact the Funeral Ministry at 702-403-8416 BEFORE making arrangements with any of the professional services. Pre-planning is also available.

Sacrament of Baptism

Please contact Pastoral Associate for Family and Parish Life Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A 6 month minimum time period is needed to complete the preparation required for the Sacrament of Matrimony. For more information, contact Pastoral Associate for Family and Parish Life, Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

Vocations

Vocations please consult with one of the priests.

Parish Chest of Prayers

To have the names of loved ones as well as special intentions for inclusion in Masses and prayers in our Parish Chest of Prayers, visit our website at www.seaslv.org and click on the Parish Chest of Prayers tab in the menu bar. Fill out and submit the form and we will make sure your intentions are placed in the prayer chest. You can also call the church office at 702-228-8311.
