

Women of the Church:
What Do They Say To Us Today?

“A Church without women is like the Apostles without Mary.”
(Pope Francis). Women throughout history have continually influenced the path of human existence, but none have left us a legacy as spirited or as powerful as the women of the Church. These women stand before the world as prophets, visionaries, activists, saints, martyrs, and heroines. But what do they say to women in the 21st century?

Join us for the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church Women’s Retreat on Saturday, June 23 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall at 1811 Pueblo Vista Dr., LV, NV 89128 as we explore the lives of various saints, biblical and modern, and discover how their powerful witness continues to inspire women of all ages. Through prayer, music, and activity we’ll come to a deeper appreciation of what it means to be a faith-filled daughter of the Church—right here, right now.
