MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE!

What an absolute joy to enter into this Easter Season in this Jubilee Year as Pilgrims of Hope! We're constantly on a journey to our heavenly homeland, and so we keep our eyes focused on Jesus, risen from the dead, as our reason to have hope! Gathered together as a community of faith, we help each other along the way.

In a world clouded by such things as war, division, uncertainty and suffering, it can feel as if hope is nothing more than wishful thinking. It must have been the same for those early followers of Jesus who were locked up in the Upper Room. Those many hours after the death of Christ must have been very stressful for them as any hope must have felt like wishful thinking as well.

But then it happened: Jesus was, indeed, raised from the dead, and he revealed his risen life to those who, most of them, previously ran away when he needed them most. But that didn't stop the divine and merciful love of Christ from loving them and renewing their hope. Once they were enlivened by the Holy Spirit, there was no stopping them from being the first Pilgrims of Hope!

May this Easter Season help us keep our eyes fixed on the Risen Jesus, who conquered sin and death and opened for us the opportunity to enter the Kingdom of God's love! He is our reason for hope, and "hope does not disappoint!" (cf. Romans 5)

On behalf of all of us who minister here at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, may you have a blessed Easter season filled with hope!

WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS!

And now, it's time for my yearly Easter Welcome to all our visitors! We welcome ALL our friends and visitors, for by your presence, you have enhanced our community today! Thanks for choosing to be with us! If you're visiting family or friends, or coming from another faith tradition or no faith tradition at all... We Welcome You! If you once called yourself "Roman Catholic" and spent some time away from the practice of your faith, or maybe if you might wish to consider yourself "Roman Catholic" sometime in the future... We Welcome You!

The fact remains, some of you, parishioners and visitors alike, may not have felt welcomed or have been harmed by the Church, her ministers or her people, in one way or another in the past... We Welcome You! Your presence here is a sign of hope, and I pray you might be able to accept my apology on behalf of the Roman Catholic Church for any way you may have been harmed or offended by the unjust and sinful actions or words from any of Christ's followers. I pray that one day there may be forgiveness for us: "for what we have done, and what we have failed to do." All in God's time and in God's way, not ours.

But, even now in our "land of the free," inequality, indifference and discrimination continue to be felt by some of God's children: they include those who believe and/or worship differently from us, those who are refugees and immigrants (documented and undocumented), our sisters and brothers of the LGBTQ community, and other vulnerable human beings society has determined are unworthy of human respect and dignity from the moment of conception through the final breath. Each and every one of them are children of God AND our brothers and sisters made in God's very own image and likeness, just like us. To treat every human person with dignity and respect is not an option for anyone who dares to claim themselves as followers of the Risen Christ...the one who loves everyone without condition, without exception.

And so, on this Easter Day, we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus who suffered and died for ALL of them and us, not just for some. We can only share more completely in the true JOY of the resurrection when we, like the risen Christ, respect and care for ALL of God's children, not just some.

Our family of faith here at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (SEAS) strives to do just that as we Journey Together Joyfully as Pilgrims of Hope! If some of our visitors might be looking for the perfect Roman Catholic Church to join, that search will be endless, and you definitely will not find it here at SEAS! While we're certainly not perfect, I think we're on the way...a work in progress, loved by God to become more like God, who is love (cf. 1 John 4:16).

If you want to join us on our journey of faith just as we are and in our quest to become more like Christ, it just might be a good fit! If, however, you want to form us into your own image and likeness or impose a particular agenda, I'm sure it will only lead to frustration. Our only agenda here is to follow the command of Christ: "The first is this: 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." (Mark 12:29-31) It is the unconditional love of Christ that is reflected through us when we show that same unconditional love for ALL, without condition, without exception. Easter is a great time for us to renew that love for ALL and really experience the true joy of the resurrection! The choice is ours.

And so, to everyone: THANKS FOR BEING WITH US...ENJOY THE JOURNEY AS PILGRIMS OF HOPE...AND HAVE A HAPPY EASTER!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

There is an invitation in the empty tomb and the abandoned burial cloths. What great things could we accomplish, if we only believe that Christ has conquered death? Go forth this Easter season, boldly embracing the hope of the resurrection.

DEVOTIONS EXPLAINED

Seven Sorrows of Mary, Explained

The Seven Sorrows of Mary refer to seven key events in the lives of Jesus and Mary: the prophecy of Simeon, the flight into Egypt, the loss of the Child Jesus in Jerusalem, the meeting of Jesus and Mary as he carried his cross to Calvary, the Crucifixion and death of Jesus, the removal of the Body of Christ from the cross, and the burial of Jesus. These events illustrate the great suffering endured by Our Lord and his Blessed Mother, and remind Christians to unite our own sufferings with those of Jesus, following Mary's perfect example.

Devotion to the sorrows of Mary dates to the early centuries of Christianity, with such proponents as St. Ephrem, St. Alphonsus Liguori and St. Bridget of Sweden.

The Seven Sorrows devotion can take the form of seven Hail Marys, seven Rosaries or a novena, all recited while meditating upon the individual sorrows.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATION

Easter Sunday

When I was a young boy, my parents told me about their wedding. Then a few years later, they showed me my mother's wedding dress and my dad's suit. It was astonishing to see and touch garments that connected me to the event that led to my existence. Of course, I already believed they were married based on their word. But these holy garments made the event real and tangible for me.

Something like this is at play when St. John reports encountering in Jesus' tomb, "the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place" (John 20:7). Those two separate cloths, for his head and for his body respectively, meant a great deal to St. John and to the early Christians. Some years after the resurrection, there surfaced reports of two cloths with unusual characteristics, one bearing the image of a crucified man's body, another smaller one with the image of a wounded man's face. Some call them the Shroud of Turin and the Veil of Manoppello; they both can be seen today.

These two cloths have a long and complicated history, and scholars debate aspects of them. If you're curious, I encourage you to read about them. To be clear, I believe in the resurrection of Jesus because of the testimony of eyewitnesses and the gift of faith in the Church. Nevertheless, seeing these two mysterious cloths have made the life-giving event of Jesus' resurrection more real and tangible for me. Maybe they will for you, too.

— Father John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question: How do I discern if a call to do something big is really from God?

Answer: Each day we face plenty of decisions about following God: whether or not to pray, how to treat people, and how to prioritize our time. Sometimes there can be something much more significant we discern: a vocational call, a promotion at work that requires a move, or a new ministry position at church. In addition to a pro-con list or a cost-benefit analysis, here are a few things to prayerfully consider and to talk over with trusted individuals.

Does it conform to God's will revealed in the Church? God doesn't call us to do something that contradicts the moral law. Will it encourage spiritual growth? Sometimes we need to choose between multiple good options. Consider the personal impact on you and others you are responsible for, like family. Other times we might be invited to do good for others, but when we assess our other life commitments, we see that saying yes to this would actually impede our prior responsibilities in the long run. Does the call seem consistent? This isn't to say that God won't do something new. Even so, consider if the call is consistent with your gifts and abilities. Can you see a "through-line" so to speak, with how your experiences have led you to this point? Do others confirm it? Share your reflections with trusted, insightful confidantes. Have they seen the same things you have, or are they bringing up new points to consider? Humbly add their relevant points to your considerations. Don't forget your gut. After you've carefully considered everything in your mind, don't neglect your instincts. Does your heart say yes or no?

Second Reading: Paul urges the Corinthians to celebrate Jesus' death and resurrection with sincerity and truth. How does your family celebrate Easter Sunday?

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The Search

Everybody's trying to find God. They may not admit it. They may not even know it. They may talk around it, shy away from saying the name, both to others and to themselves: God. But I know for a fact that every person who was ever born into this world spent their lives searching for Him - somewhere, somehow, even if the only place they thought to look was in money or drugs.

It's a comforting fact, really — a reminder of how alike we all are. Catholic, Jewish, Muslim, atheist, rich, poor, black, white. When it comes right down to it, the history of humanity is a never-ending Easter morning scene that plays in perpetuity. The sorrow, the shock, the confusion. Again and again, as each newborn baby opens his eyes, the search begins anew. Where did he go? What has happened? Where can I find him? Catechesis isn't enough. Even those who learn about Jesus Christ, who accept his word, hang hesitantly outside the tomb, afraid to go in. Jesus' best friend — the disciple whom he loved — ran faster than Peter, so desperate he was to find his Lord. But when he got to the tomb and saw it empty, he got spooked. He froze.

Sometimes, we expect God to be right where we left Him — in a certain parish, with a certain priest, in a certain relationship, at a certain job. We show up, and we're heartbroken to see that our expectations have been turned upside down. He's left us, we think dejectedly, but we're wrong. There is no one who has been abandoned by God. There are only those who stop looking for Him. Don't let the empty tombs define you. It's the search that defines you.

Rice Bowl Donations Due by April 27

Participating in the Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl program is a great way to practice charity during the season of Lent, especially families with young children. The Rice Bowls are for monetary donations, not rice. Please do not return them filled with rice. Instead of returning the bowls with lots of coins, please consider counting the coins and returning instead that amount in bills or a check written out to SEAS clearly marked for RICE BOWL. That will make the bowls much more manageable in the collection basket. You may also make your contribution online at www.crsricebowl.org. Thank you for your consideration!

Divine Mercy Devotion — April 27

Join us at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 27, to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. The message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread. The message of mercy is that God loves us — all of us — no matter how great our sins. He wants us to recognize that his mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon him with trust, receive his mercy, and let it flow through us to others.

May Crowning

All are welcome to attend our parish May Crowning celebration, on Thursday, May 1, at 6 p.m. in the church. May Crowning is a traditional Roman Catholic ritual held during the month of May. A statue of the Blessed Virgin is crowned with a garland or crown of flowers honoring Mary as "the Queen of May." The queen symbol was attributed to Mary because she was a perfect follower of Christ, who is the absolute "crown" of creation. She is the Mother of the Son of God, who is the messianic King. Mary is the Mother of Christ.

Children and teens in PreK – Grade 12 are invited to participate in the opening procession. Parents may register your child to participate in the procession using this link:

Steel Magnolias

2 p.m. in the indoor Randall L. Jones Theatre

The women of Chinquapin, Louisiana, gather each week in wise-cracking Truvy Jones' popular beauty salon where she does the hair of such locals as the rich curmudgeon Ouiser, the eccentric millionaire Miss Clairee, and the socialite M'Lynn whose daughter Shelby is about to get married. As these women make their way over life's many ups and downs together, they find comfort, love, friendship—and a fair amount of verbal ribbing—in one another's company.

Antony and Cleopatra

8 p.m. in the outdoor Engelstad Shakespeare Theatre

A man of great vision, dedication, and purpose, Marc Antony is still no match for the passionate and irresistible Queen of the Nile. Will this great military hero face catastrophic defeat with his vision clouded and his purpose blunted? Reason battles emotion in this epic and seldom-produced portrayal of love, leaving us wondering until the very end: which will win, or will all be lost?
