ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

Parish Mission with Fr. Ricky Manalo, CSP September 14, 15, and 16, 2026

Each evening will begin with hospitality in our parish hall 5:30 p.m. - 6:45 p.m. followed by Fr. Ricky's presentation in the church at 7 p.m.

Fr. Ricky Manalo, CSP, is a Paulist priest and a pioneering voice in Catholic liturgy, music, and theology, recognized internationally for his contributions to intercultural ministry and pastoral leadership. His work has significantly shaped Asian American Catholicism and deepened the Church's engagement with sociological disciplines such as political polarization and artificial intelligence.

LIVE THE LITURGY

"Who do you say that I am?" Jesus asks his apostles. Peter is the first to answer. He knows who Jesus is. Do we? In everything we do and everything we are, let us say together with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Valor, Explained

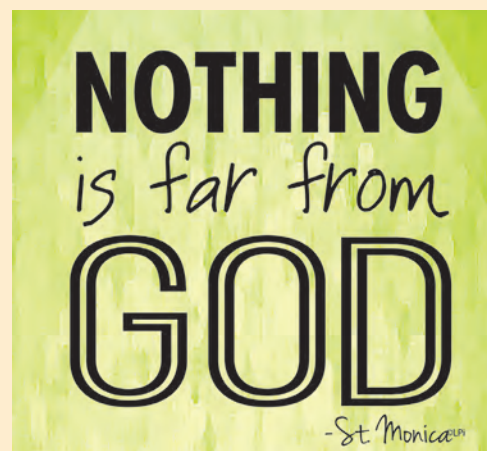

Though valor itself is not a cardinal or theological virtue, as a Latin-based word that means "strength," we often associate it with the gift of fortitude. Specifically, it conjures an image of fortitude on the battlefield — of fidelity to the good fight, regardless of the coming attack.

When Christ presides at the Last Supper in the Gospel of John, he speaks to his Apostles of the persecutions that will soon be suffered by him and by them. He also speaks of the Advocate (the Holy Spirit) who will "guide you to all truth" — a significant choice, since fortitude is not only a virtue, but a gift of the Holy Spirit.

"Behold, the hour is coming...when each of you will be scattered...and you will leave me alone," Christ tells them. "But I am not alone, because the Father is with me."

In the world, he concludes, there will be pain and suffering. "But take courage, I have conquered the world." (John 16:13-33).

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 16:13-20

The first time I stood inside St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, its majesty overwhelmed me. The sheer beauty of Michelangelo's dome seemed to lift my soul right out of my body. Later, I joined the Scavi tour that winds below the basilica, down into the ancient pagan cemetery where Peter was buried. There, in the dim light and narrow passageways, I found myself looking at the bones of a murdered Jewish fisherman, his feet cut off so his crucified body could be taken down more easily.

What a paradox. Above me, the most glorious church ever built. Beneath me, the remains of a backwater fisherman. But this man dared to answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" And crowning that immense dome above his tomb are the words from today's Gospel, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

Within you and me is the drama of the lowest and the highest. Every time we confess Christ, humbly, imperfectly, maybe even trembling, we enter that same mystery. The dust of our humanity, touched by the splendor of heaven. God's presence and our dry bones together. Humility and glory. May our lives embrace both the lowest and the highest, like that great basilica, as we profess Jesus.

— Father John Muir

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Only Peter Has the Answer

"What do you think of the Pope?" After the election of Pope Leo XIV in 2025, all my non-Catholic friends texted me this question. The result of the papal conclave was dominating the news cycle, and everyone was curious about this man who would now be so prominent on the world stage, making me temporarily popular with people who apparently need more (and better) Catholics in their lives.

In today's Gospel, we see Jesus entrust Peter and his heirs with the stewardship of the kingdom here on earth, creating an unbroken line of authority which stretches through the millennia all the way to our current Pope — whoever he is at the time you are reading this.

I don't know if you like the Pope. The same goes for your local bishop and your pastor. If a friend texted you, "What do you think of him?" I have no idea how you would respond. All I know is this: it doesn't really matter. What really matters is what we would say if a friend texted us the same question about Jesus Christ: "What do you think of him, and why?"

In today's Gospel, Jesus doesn't ask his disciples to take an IQ test. He doesn't try to find out which one is the nicest, the hardest worker, the most humble, or even the holiest. He asks a very simple question: "Who do you say that I am?" Peter has the answer.

I am not Catholic because I like the Pope. I am not Catholic because the human representatives of the Church have anything to offer me (they often do, but this is beside the point). I am Catholic because only Peter has the answer. ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: For disobeying the Lord, Shebna, the master of King Hezekiah's palace, is stripped of his authority and honor, and it is given to Eliakim. Are there people in your life or family that you honor and revere?

Second Reading: Reflecting on the unimaginable depth of God's wisdom and knowledge, Paul asks, "Who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?" What question do you have for the Lord?

Gospel: Jesus establishes Peter as the rock upon whom he will build his church. In what ways do you help build your church community?

Assistive Listening Devices Available

For those who are hearing impaired or may have difficulty understanding what is said during Mass due to background noise, distance from the speakers, or echo in the church, we offer assistive listening devices to help get past hearing obstacles. Each wireless unit comes with an earpiece that sits over the top of the ear or you can attach your own mini jack (3.5mm) ear buds or headphones. The units can be borrowed from the reception desk located inside the gift shop. Please remember to return them to the receptionist after Mass so they will be available for others to use.

Permanent Diaconate Discernment Sessions

Men between the ages of 30 and 55 (as well as their wives and families) who are discerning a possible call to serve the Church are invited to attend a Permanent Diaconate Discernment and Information Session. These gatherings will offer an introduction to the ministry of the Deacon, the discernment process, formation expectations, and the needs of the growing Archdiocese of Las Vegas. These FINAL SESSIONS will all be at the Archdiocese of Las Vegas Chancery located at 336 Cathedral Way, Las Vegas 89109, and will be presented bilingually:

- Tuesday, August 25th: 6:30 - 8 p.m.
- Wednesday, September 16th: 6:30 - 8 p.m.

All are welcome to attend the session most convenient for them. To learn more about the Permanent Diaconate and to register for one of the sessions, please visit www.lvcatholic.org/diaconate.

Question: In Sunday school, the students are studying the Ten Commandments. I know that kids are important in the eyes of God, so I'm just wondering why there isn't a commandment about honoring children.

Answer: Commandments provide EOO-Equal Opportunity for Observance! They are meant for everyone, children as well as adults. There are several assumptions that would make such a commandment a bit redundant. One, children are entrusted to the care of their parents. So, respect, love, and care — as well as teaching them — are assumed to be part of the responsibility of parents. They are the first teachers in the ways of faith and, as such, participate in God's work of loving and creating. The child has the obligation and responsibility towards their parents. Only when they are adults will they make decisions on their own.

In Biblical times, and in many societies today, children are responsible for caring for elderly parents, providing for their needs. In our culture today, too often kids have more rights than responsibilities, and oftentimes long before they are able to handle them. If we follow the Commandment of Jesus to love others and treat them as we would want to be treated, everyone is included, children too.

"In Giving, We Receive" Parish Stewardship Program

Prince of Peace Roman Catholic Church will be the August 2026 recipient of our parish stewardship program, "In Giving, We Receive."

Through this ministry, we gift 2% of our weekly offertory collection each month to a charity or parish in need within the Archdiocese of Las Vegas. The Archdiocese helps identify which parishes have the greatest need. If you would like to help Prince of Peace Church as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR PRINCE OF PEACE, and place it in any Sunday collection basket. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be given at the end of August.

Women of Joy

Rooted in Grace

A Faith-Sharing Group for Women

Come join us for a small group gathering where we will read, reflect, and nurture our spiritual growth.

We will use the book Catching Fire, Becoming Flame by Albert Haase, OFM, as a starting point for conversation and reflection. The book selection is secondary to the heart of our gathering: coming together to share, listen, laugh, and support one another.

Dates: Tuesdays- 9/8, 9/22, 10/6, 10/20, 11/3, 11/17, 12/1, and 12/15
Time: 6:30-8:00 pm
Limited to 10 participants.
 If you are interested in attending, please sign up early!

To sign up, please email Julie at mjjjc@comcast.net. Once you receive confirmation of your sign-up, books can be purchased from the SEAS gift shop. The only cost to attend is the purchase of the book.

If you have any questions, please reach out to us! We are looking forward to meeting you and sharing faith-filled conversation.

Becoming Catholic — Is This for You???

- You are not Catholic, but are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith...
- You were never baptized, but feel the need for God in your life...
- You were baptized in another denomination, but now want to explore membership in the Roman Catholic Church...
- You were baptized Catholic, but never completed initiation by receiving the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation...
- You are a Catholic who simply wants to learn more about your faith...

If you find yourself in any of these categories, then please consider "Becoming Catholic: The OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)." Our next season begins August 20, 2026, with sessions on Thursdays from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the parish hall. Register at www.seaslv.org under the Faith Formation menu tab, or contact Marcie Wilske at 702-804-8370 or mwilske@seaslv.org. Becoming Catholic is primarily a journey of faith designed to give a person INFORMATION (about the various teachings and beliefs of the Roman Catholic Church), FORMATION (growing in your relationship to God and God's Church), that hopefully leads to TRANSFORMATION (becoming a committed disciple of Jesus Christ).

Our Parish Faith Formation Ministry Needs You

Would you like to take part in the great privilege of forming the hearts and minds of our young people in the Catholic faith? Our parish faith formation programs rely on dedicated and generous volunteers who serve as parish catechists, assistants, and hall monitors. Each year, we are in need of catechists to support the ongoing formation of our youth (age 3 through high school). We have a special need for new catechists and volunteers for the upcoming formation year (September 2026 - May 2027) as our program continues to grow. We provide support and education for all new volunteers. If you wish to inquire about the ministry of catechist, please fill out the catechist interest form under Children's Faith Formation at www.seaslv.org or contact us at faithformation@seaslv.org or 702-804-8306.

Adults in Need of Confirmation?

There are many reasons why we Catholics sometimes take an extended leave-of-absence from our relationship with the Lord through the Catholic Church. There are also many reasons why baptized Catholics sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church. If you are looking to "re-engage" with your faith or are an adult wishing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, our Welcome Home Ministry can help. Our parish community offers you a safe place to be listened to, a place to ask questions, a place for healing, a place to update your faith as an adult, and a place to help you engage in the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. Our next 10-week program begins September 8, 2026. Sessions will be held on Tuesdays from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Questions? Contact Marcie Wilske at 702-804-8370 or mwilske@seaslv.org.

Parish Sponsors Needed

People who are exploring membership in the Catholic Church or who are seeking to complete their initiation into the sacramental life of the Church don't always know a good, practicing Catholic who can walk this journey with them. Thank goodness our SEAS community is filled with such people! Here are 6 reasons to be a PARISH SPONSOR:

- Weekly small groups are fun, friendly, and fulfilling
- You want to give back to God and your parish
- Other people's faith journeys are super interesting!
- It's been a while since you've felt inspired about your faith
- You love talking about all things Catholic
- We can't bring in new members without YOU!

A Becoming Catholic or Welcome Home parish sponsor is one who has an obvious faith life, is available for weekly sessions (Tuesday or Thursday nights), is a good listener, and is willing to serve as a mentor and companion to those seeking to discover the joy of Jesus and the Catholic Church. Intrigued? For more information, contact Marcie at mwilske@seaslv.org or 702-804-8370.

September Food Drive

Our next monthly food drive will be held the weekend of September 5-6. Place non-perishable food in the gathering space donation bin, or look for volunteers by the bin AFTER Mass to assist you with carrying items from your car.

"Farm Fresh" Complimentary Fresh Produce

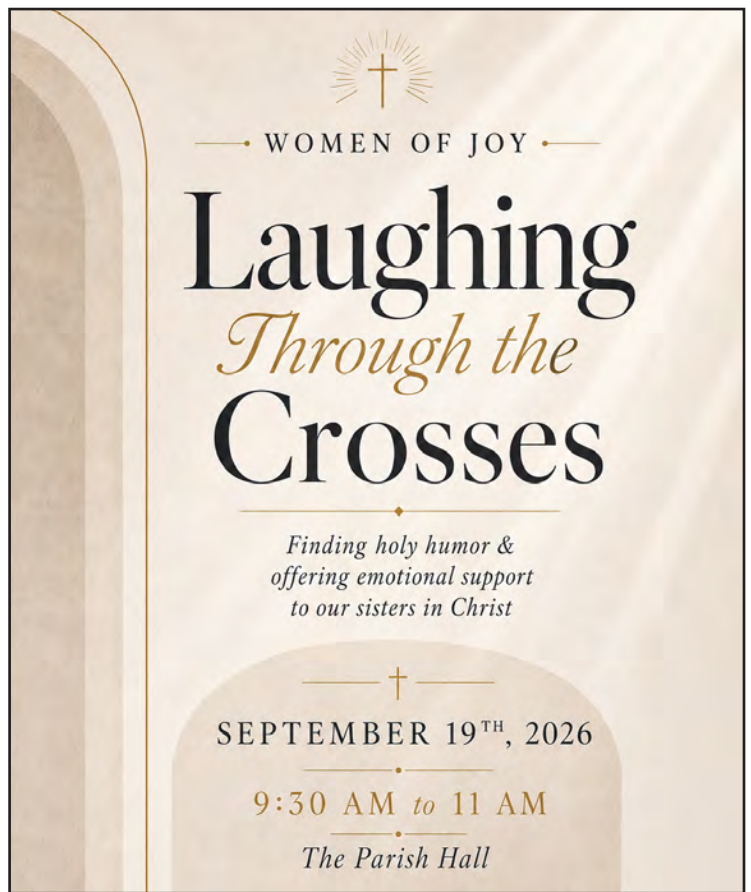

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Human Concerns Ministry is excited to bring "Farm Fresh" to our parish and community. The program is an initiative of the Three Square Food Bank and is designed to expand access to fresh, high-quality produce. Here at SEAS, the Farm Fresh produce will be available every first Saturday of the month from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the parish hall beginning on Saturday, September 5. Any person who would like to receive the complimentary fresh produce is welcome to come.

Monthly Distribution of Golden Groceries is Moving to Tuesdays

Because of the new Farm Fresh food program we will be offering on the first Saturday of each month, our monthly distribution of complimentary Golden Groceries for those age 60 and better will be moving to Tuesdays once a month with the next distribution on Tuesday, September 8, from 9-11 a.m. in the parish hall. No registration or appointment necessary, and no non-food items will be available. The Golden Groceries program is provided by Three Square Food Bank and administered by St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's Human Concerns Ministry to bring healthier food choices to people age 60 and better.

Facilities Maintenance Technician - Handyman

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (SEAS) Catholic Church is seeking a part-time technician to assist with the overall maintenance, repair, care, and effective operation of campus facilities and grounds. Position available immediately. The ideal candidate must have basic plumbing, electrical, mechanical, painting, and carpentry skills; be safety-focused, and a collaborative team player who is flexible with time, able to respond to emergencies and work on evenings and weekends if needed. A valid driver's license is required. To apply, please complete an application on the Archdiocese of Las Vegas website at <https://www.lvcatholic.org/employment-and-volunteer-applications>. Please direct all inquiries/resumes to: Fernando Beltran, Director of Environmental Services at SEAS at fbeltran@seaslv.org or 702-804-8374.

MORE PARISH INFORMATION

We Invite You to Register at Our Parish

In order that we may better serve you, please register with the parish by visiting www.seaslv.org. Registration forms are also available in the gathering space of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if you need to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at home or in a hospital. For assistance after hours or on Sundays, call the answering service at 702-388-9571. A priest will be notified and will contact you directly. The Sacrament is also offered communally within the Mass. Watch the bulletin for upcoming Anointing of the Sick Masses, scheduled on a quarterly basis.

Food Pantry

If you or someone you know is in need of food assistance please call 702-804-8317 and leave a voicemail message. Your call will be returned to schedule an appointment for the monthly food pantry distribution.

Food Pantry Donations

We are always in need of non-perishable food AND non-food (laundry detergent, paper towels, hygiene items, etc.) donations. Donations can be placed in the wooden bin in the church gathering space ANYTIME the church is open. We are unable to accept clothing and household items. Thank you!

Funeral Ministry

In the event of a death of a loved one, please contact the Funeral Ministry at 725-233-3633 BEFORE making arrangements with any of the professional services. Pre-planning is also available.

Holy Communion for the Sick

In case of hospitalization, inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and would like to receive Communion.

Parish Chest of Prayers

To have the names of loved ones as well as special intentions for inclusion in Masses and prayers in our Parish Chest of Prayers, visit our website at www.seaslv.org and click on the Parish Chest of Prayers tab in the menu bar. Fill out and submit the form and we will make sure your intentions are placed in the prayer chest. You can also call the church office at 702-228-8311.

Sacrament of Baptism

Please contact Pastoral Associate for Family and Parish Life Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A 6 month minimum time period is needed to complete the preparation required for the Sacrament of Matrimony. For more information, contact Pastoral Associate for Family and Parish Life, Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

Vocations

If you feel you are being called to the priesthood or religious life, consult with one of our priests, or contact the Vocation Director for the Archdiocese of Las Vegas, Fr. Miguel Corral at vocations@adolv.org or 702-629-4600.
