MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends of SEAS,

THE GRATITUDE CONTINUES

It's been nearly two months since the festivities that celebrated my 25th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. Once my family and friends traveled back to their homesteads, it was back to the parish life that I know and love! Due to no fault but my own, I have been delayed in the writing out of thank-you notes to those who so generously remembered me during this milestone. My hope is to have this project of gratitude completed very soon (with the assistance of some helping hands as well!).

I do need to offer a sincere note of THANKS to some who have given jubilee greetings and gifts but didn't sign the card! So, to those who may have forgotten to put your names on the cards or simply wanted to remain anonymous, THANK YOU for your kind remembrance! I remain ever grateful for your gracious words, notes of appreciation, and generous gifts that have come from the heart. God's blessings to ALL of you for your goodness!

A TRIBUTE FROM OUR PARISH SCHOOL STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF

One of the parents from our Parish School put together a very beautiful compilation of scripture quotes, tributes, pictures and jubilee congratulations from the entire Parish School community. A lot of love and work went into this special gift I will cherish for years to come. As a matter of fact, it's going to take me some time to read through the many messages from our students. God's blessings to all at our Parish School and to the labor of love in putting it all together!

ONE OF THE MOST UNIQUE GIFTS

Among the gifts I received, a most unique and generous gift came from those who, during our September Vitalant Blood Drive, donated blood in honor of my 25th Anniversary! What a beautiful gift, and a gift that keeps giving! Thanks to all who signed the card and thanks for such a thoughtful gift for the benefit of others. God's blessings to ALL who are able to donate blood during our blood drives!

AN INSPIRING NOTE TO SHARE

I don't like to talk about money. But even more than that, I don't like to ask for money either. I know that each time I bring up the subject, a few will not be happy.

Nonetheless, during the weekend of presenting our Annual Parish Report in the bulletin, it would have been extremely irresponsible of me to not encourage those members of our parish who are able, to consider an increase in the weekly support of our parish. I've increased my own weekly giving, since I am a contributing member of this great parish as well.

I do, however, want to share a signed response from one of our own parishioners who understands and personifies the concept of "sacrificial giving":

"I am reaching out this morning because I increased the weekly contribution from $10.00 to $15.00. Unfortunately, this is what our budget is allowing us to do at this time. I recently lost my job, but a lot of people are going through the same situation. However, I have no doubt that once my situation changes, I will be glad to contribute more. I am sorry the church is being affected as well."

I was so very humbled by the sincere desire of this parishioner to give a little more even in the midst of present personal financial struggles. Remember the story of "the widow's mite" in last weekend's Gospel (Mark 12:38-44)? Jesus held up this poor widow's sacrificial offering of "two small coins worth a few cents" as being more generous than those who give only "from their surplus" (without any sacrifice!). To me, this parishioner was a current representation of that same Gospel story. This was an example of pure generosity without counting the cost, of giving while trusting in God. I believe this parishioner represents those of you, faithful parishioners, who want the best for our parish to thrive and move forward! Remember, in speaking of "sacrificial giving," it's not about equal gifts, it's about equal sacrifice. In other words, the amount one gives is less important than the spirit in which one gives.

Thanks to all of you who have or will consider an increase in your weekly sacrificial giving. And, if that's not possible, thanks for your prayerful support and encouragement, which is just as valuable, as all of us "journey together joyfully!"

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Question: How long are holy oils kept for use?

Answer: Twelve months

LIVE THE LITURGY

It sometimes feels like God is silent, like he sets himself apart from us and our struggles on earth. But Jesus reminds us of the fig tree, who can feel the coming of spring deep within itself. In the same intuitive way, we know the voice of God. Listen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Justin Martyr | June 1

St. Justin Martyr (c. 100 – 165) was born in the Palestinian province of Samaria in the town of Flavia Neapolis to Greek parents. Justin's education was a classical mix of history, poetry, rhetoric, and philosophy. The future saint was fascinated by philosophy and studied in the various schools from stoicism to Socratic and Pythagoras to Platonic. Although he favored the Platonic school, he felt that the philosophical schools were missing something.

Justin continued to seek a higher truth. He was struck by the Christians he saw being persecuted for their beliefs. He observed these early martyrs go to their deaths fearlessly and wondered at the truth and peace they carried. He met an old man who spoke to him of the prophecies of the Jewish people and of Christianity. These powerful witnesses worked a conversion in Justin, and he was baptized around the age of 30.

The saint was most likely an ordained deacon, spending time at Ephesus with the Jewish population, and in Rome. He is most well known as the author of apologies, or explanations, of the early Church. These important texts give detailed descriptions of the early Church. The elements of faith and of the Mass that he gives correlate directly to how Catholics believe and practice today. His witness also shows that the Church of the second century read from the same texts as we do. He mentions the first three Gospels, the letters of Paul and 1 Peter, and is the first known to quote the Acts of the Apostles.

Eventually, Justin's evangelical activity caused him to be arrested in the reign of the Emperor Marcus Aurelius in 165. He, along with six companions, was scourged and beheaded by Rusticus, a prefect of Rome. An eyewitness account of his martyrdom still survives. St. Justin Martyr, pray for us!

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATION

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

I recently moved into a new neighborhood. On my first evening I went grocery shopping and could not find my usual favorite Greek yogurt. Strangely, my heart started to race. All the losses of my previous life hit me. So many of my old friends, habits, comforts, and predictable experiences had fallen away. There I stood, a grown man, crying like a little boy whose world was falling apart in the dairy aisle.

This week, Jesus describes what to do when one world ends, and another begins. Does it apply to the end of time? Yes. Does it apply to the end of our individual lives? Yes. It also applies to every "world" we inhabit throughout our lives, in school, family, friendships, work, play and so on. First, the sun, moon, and stars fall. The old, familiar ways of running things suddenly stop working. Light fades. Things fall apart. It's awful. But, second, Christ comes "in the clouds." Jesus, the Son of Man, replaces those old powers with himself as the prime governing principle. Third, he sends out his angels to "gather his elect from the four winds." He re-integrates the fragments into a new integrated whole. "Summer is near," he concludes. A new world begins.

Is your world crumbling? Are your sun, moon, and stars falling from the sky? Learn to discern the pattern of the Cross and Resurrection at work in it. This is the power we touch in the Mass. Jesus is coming precisely in this transition from the old to the new world. It doesn't make our losses easy. But it does make it possible to glimpse the dawning of a summer, a new beginning, the life of the world to come.

Important Security Training for All SEAS Volunteers

Steve Meriwether, Director of Safety & Risk Management for the Archdiocese of Las Vegas, is requesting that all parish volunteers within the archdiocese attend the "See Something, Say Something, Mobilization Indicators and National Suspicious Activity Reporting Class."

The Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department's Southern Nevada Counter Terrorism Center wants to make sure they empower their faith-based partners in preventing mass violence and terrorism. With Christmas around the corner the threat levels always increase, and houses of worship are a soft target. This community partner presentation is approximately 45 minutes to one-hour and is free.

If you were not able to attend the November 12 class, it will be repeated on Tuesday, December 3, at 6 p.m. at the Archdiocese of Las Vegas (in Anderson Hall) 336 Cathedral Way, Las Vegas 89109

Please sign up with the link below or in the gift shop so the Archdiocese knows how many people to expect:

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The prophet Daniel foresaw a time of great distress and ultimate judgment for the living and the dead. Who supports you when you are feeling anxious or are deeply worried?

Second Reading: The author of Hebrews emphasizes Jesus's death as the final offering for the forgiveness of sins, making us "perfect forever" in eternal life. What do you find most curious about the idea of being perfect in eternal life?

Gospel: Jesus speaks to his disciples about the signs that will accompany his Second Coming, even though only God the Father knows the exact time. How should one best prepare for this unknown future?

Additional Daily Mass Wednesdays of Advent

Because the Mass is the highest form of prayer, we will offer an additional daily Mass at 7 p.m. on the Wednesdays of Advent: December 4, 11, and 18 (Simbang Gabi Mass).

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question: Why do Catholics pray to Mary and the saints?

Answer: One of the statements of faith we make when we pray the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed is that we believe in "the communion of saints." The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that this communion (another word for community) includes all the faithful on earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the blessed women, men, and children who are in heaven. This teaching is grounded in our belief that, through Baptism, we are united with Christ and to one another with bonds that are stronger even than death.

And so, from the time of the early Church, Christians have turned to other believers for prayers and assistance, including those who have gone before us, confident that God hears the prayers of all of His children. While we ask the saints (and one another) for prayers and support, we remember that the saints join us in prayer. But it is God who blesses and sanctifies us.

When we think of Mary and the saints in heaven, we have to remember that we can turn to them for intercession and assistance because they were faulted, limited human beings, just like us. This means that they are able to understand our struggles, doubts, fears, joys, and hopes. But as we learn their stories, we can also begin to recognize that they stand out in the history of the Church because they persevered in their commitment to follow Christ. Whether they were ordained, vowed religious, martyrs, husbands, wives, or even children, they show us that holiness is possible. We can not only follow their example but also benefit from their prayerful support.

Our devotion to the saints and gratitude for their witness, prayers, and protection should also be an inspiration for us, especially when we become aware of the needs of others or when others ask us to pray for them. We are called to share the blessings we receive. This is also part of our own journey of growing in holiness.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The End of the World

"It's not the end of the world." If I had a brick for every time my mother said this to me growing up, I could have built a castle. One that comes complete with a moat whose bridge I could dramatically pull up so I could sulk, in the window of the highest turret, sighing loudly so every passerby would know how I suffered.

Because sometimes we act like it's the end of the world — whether we are a little kid angered by a playground snub, a teenage girl flipping out over an assignment for English class, or a college student distraught that she got scheduled for four opening shifts in a row at the coffee house where she works (yes, these are all examples taken straight from my life, why do you ask?).

And sometimes, it really does seem like the end of the world. We lose someone we love to cancer. We miscarry a child before we even get to see his tiny face. The rent is due, and the bank account is overdrawn (also all examples taken straight from my life).

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that when the sun is darkened and the moon no longer gives light, we must look for him, because his time is near.

He's talking about The End of the World. The big one, the apocalypse. But why do I think he's also talking about the end of the world — those sufferings large and small, real and imagined, that make us feel like the sky is caving in?

In both instances, he draws near to us. So let us look for him.

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW IN THE PARISH HALL

Angel Tree Drive 2024

Angel Trees are up and our Angel Tree Drive is underway through December 8!

There are 2 ways to give:

1. Choose an angel from the trees

Age & Gender (Girl/Woman/Boy/Man) of people in need who registered for the Angel Tree Program are listed on the angel tags. No specific item requested. You choose age appropriate gift. All donated gifts will be displayed on tables like a store with areas for children and adults. Christmas bags, paper and tape will be sent home with families so they can wrap their gifts.

2. Choose an envelope from the trees

• Envelopes are for financial contributions to benefit people in need. You may choose where you would like your contribution to be used: Child in need, Senior Citizen in need, Catholic Charities, Seminarians, or where the donation is needed most.

We are not able to accept any gift cards you purchase. We will buy the gift cards in bulk depending upon the contributions we receive. By purchasing in bulk we receive a discount and are not charged activation fees!

Please return financial contributions and gifts by December 8:

• Envelopes:

• Place in collection baskets at Mass, mail a check to the church, or make an electronic contribution at seaslv.org

• Gifts:

• Place in the wooden bins in gathering space of the church or the parish hall. Gifts can also be returned at our Dec. 7-8 Food Drive.

Questions? Contact Patti McGuire, Pastoral Associate for Human Concerns at 702-804-8311 of pmcguire@seaslv.org.

Thank you for your generosity and continued support!

Complimentary Christmas Gift Wrapping

Are you a so-so gift wrapper? Do you find wrapping Christmas gifts to be stressful instead of fun? If you answered YES to either of the above, why not let the SEAS Youth Ministry do the wrapping for you?! Bring your gifts and your own wrapping materials (we'll have some, too) to the SEAS

Youth Ministry building, and we will wrap your Christmas gifts for you on December 6 and December 7 between 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. The service is complimentary! If you would like to make a free-will offering, it will be appreciated! For more information contact Youth Ministry at Emmaus@seaslv.org or 702-804-8313.

Ways to Help with Our Lady of Guadalupe Celebration

If you would like to make a financial contribution to help cover the cost of our parish Our Lady of Guadalupe celebrations, donations can be made at www.seaslv.org or in an envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR OLG CELEBRATION placed in any collection basket or delivered to the parish reception desk located in the gift shop.

Additional ways to help:

- Mark Thursday, December 12, on your calendar and plan to attend one of the celebrations. Masses will be offered at 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. with celebrations continuing afterwards in the parish hall.
- Be part of our planning committee. Many hands are needed to help coordinate the various sub-committees (food, decorations, set-up/clean-up, etc.)

For more information on how you can be part of this wonderful celebration, contact Norma Mendez at normam0040@gmail.com or Cynthia Carrillo at ccarrillo@seaslv.org. Last year our inaugural celebration of the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe was a rousing success with packed Masses, lively music and dance, and delicious food! With your help, we can do it again!

Baptism Preparation for Parents & Godparents

Baptism Preparation for parents and godparents requesting the Sacrament of Baptism for infants and children up to the age of 7, will be held on Wednesday, December 4, from 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. in the parish hall meeting rooms. Sign up with Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321, or simply reserve your seats at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30E044DA4A82BA7FA7-baptism>.

Bible Study on the Infancy Narratives

The prologues to the Gospels of Matthew and Luke contain some of the most cherished passages in all of Scripture. But although we refer to these prologues as Infancy Narratives, they do not actually give us information about Jesus' infancy and childhood. Rather, they seek to answer the question, "Who is Jesus of Nazareth?" Through the Infancy Narratives we discover that Jesus is of God and from God from the moment of his conception. Jesus is the fullness of God's saving message ... a message that will then be more fully developed in the rest of the Gospels. Beginning the week of December 2, this 3-session study will be offered on Mondays 6:30-8 p.m., and repeated and also live-streamed on Wednesdays 9:30-11 a.m. in the parish hall. Cost: $30.00 for study materials. Register in the gift shop or at www.seaslv.org. Questions? Contact Marcie Wilske at 702-804-8370 or mwilske@seaslv.org.

Remembrance Holiday Potluck — December 4

You are invited to a Remembrance Holiday Potluck hosted by the SEAS Human Concerns Ministry on Wednesday, December 4, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the parish hall.

- Please join us and bring a dish to share if you want (serving 4-6 people).
- In remembrance of those who have died and we miss especially during the holidays (but whose spirit we will always carry) please bring a picture of your loved one to place on our "Table of Remembrance".
- If you are attending Bible Study, you may bring your food items directly to the parish hall gym before class.
- If you require assistance transporting food, drinks, or pictures from your car, carts will be available for your use.

The death can be recent or from years past. It's up to you. RSVP at 702-804-8311 or sign up at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30e044da4a82ba7fa7-holiday> For more information or for help signing up, contact Patti McGuire at 702-804-8311 or pmcguire@seaslv.org.

Expectant Parents Blessing — December 7-8

On the weekend of December 7-8, at all Masses, we will invite expectant parents, both mothers and fathers, to come forward to receive a special blessing. Whether you are soon-to-be first-time parents or experienced parents awaiting the birth of another little one, please come and receive our prayers for your family.

2nd Annual SEAS Great Cookie Walk

Looking for gifts for those holiday parties and family get-togethers? Or just some delicious "goodies" for your Christmas table? Why not make plans to be part of our SEAS GREAT COOKIE WALK? This fundraising event, sponsored by our SEAS Women of Joy Ministry, will be held on Saturday, December 14, in the parish hall. Doors will open at 9 a.m. and will stay open until all the cookies are gone, or 3 p.m. at the latest. How does this work?

- Participants will buy an empty bakery box for $20
- They will browse the dozens and dozens of delicious homemade Christmas cookies and select which ones they want to fill their box
- They'll take their box home and enjoy with family and friends!

Make plans now to be part of the fun Either as a baker, a buyer, or BOTH! What a fun way to start the holidays and support our Women of Joy Ministry!

ATTENTION: Bakers Needed

We're looking for generous parishioners who are willing to bake and donate 5 dozen of their favorite Christmas cookies for the SEAS Women of Joy's Great Cookie Walk fundraiser.

- The cookies should be the same type (not a mixture of different cookies) and placed in a non-returnable container.
- Please put your name on the container, the name of the cookie, and indicate if any type of nuts were used in the baking, and/or if they are gluten free.
- Cookies are to be delivered to the parish hall on Friday, December 13, between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.
- Bakers: please sign up with this link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090B44A9A72DA0FB6-53051453-2ndannual>

Our Women of Joy volunteers will take it from there! Thank you for your generosity!! If you have any questions, please contact Bianca Sottile at 702-205-2339 or wojseaslv@gmail.com.
